

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

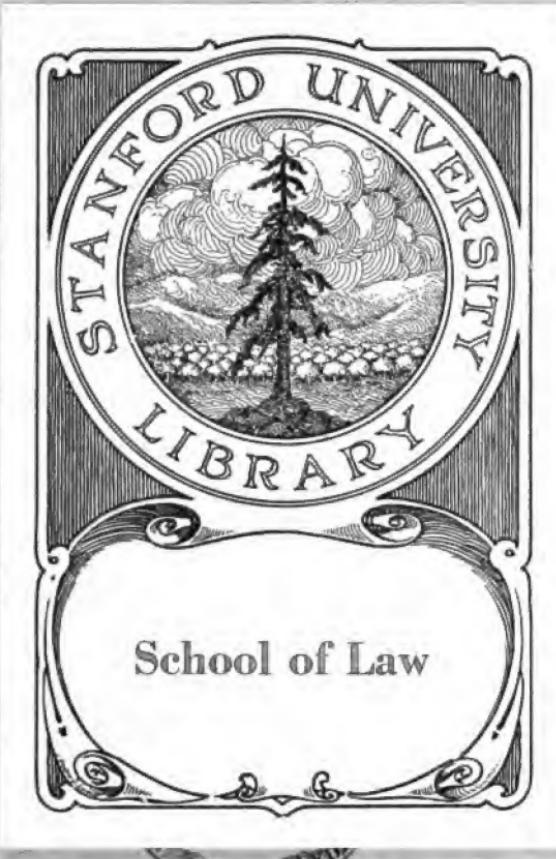

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## THE CLOTHES

It is a well-known fact that the clothes we wear are not merely articles of dress, but are also a means of protection against the elements. They help to keep us warm in cold weather, cool in hot weather, and dry in wet weather. They also provide a degree of privacy and modesty. In addition, they can be used as a form of expression, allowing us to show our personality and style.

The history of clothing is a long one, with evidence of early forms of clothing found in ancient civilizations such as Egypt, Mesopotamia, and China. These early forms of clothing were made from animal skins, plant fibers, and other natural materials. Over time, techniques for spinning and weaving were developed, leading to more complex and durable fabrics. The use of dyes and patterns also became common, adding to the variety and beauty of clothing.

Today, clothing is a multi-billion dollar industry, with a wide range of styles and options available. From casual wear to formal attire, there is something for everyone. The choice of clothing depends on various factors such as occasion, climate, and personal preference. It is important to choose clothing that is comfortable, functional, and reflects one's individuality.

Clothing can also have a social and cultural significance. In some cultures, certain types of clothing are considered appropriate or inappropriate for certain occasions. For example, in many countries, it is considered disrespectful to wear revealing clothing in public places. In other cultures, certain types of clothing are associated with specific professions or roles.

In conclusion, clothing is a fundamental part of our lives, providing both practical and symbolic value. It is an essential element of our daily existence, reflecting our individuality and our place in society.

How Lands bolden by Knights Service, descending to Coparceners within Age, shall be divided.

HENRY, by the Grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Guyan and Normandy, Earl of Anjou, To his trusty and well beloved Gerard, son of Maurice Justicer of Ireland, Greeting. Whereas certain Knights of the parties of Ireland, lately coming to Us, have informed Us, that when any Land doth descend unto sisters within our Dominion of Ireland, our Justices Errant in those parties are in doubt whether the younger sisters ought to hold of the eldest sister, and do homage unto her for their portions, or of the chief Lord, and do homage unto him. And forasmuch as the said Knights have requested to be certified how it hath been used heretofore within our Realm of England in like case : (2) at their instance we do you to wit, that such a Law and Custom is in England in this case, That if any, holding of us in chief, happen to die, having daughters to his heirs, our ancestors and we, after the death of the Father, have always had and received homage of all such daughters, and every of them in this case do hold of us in chief : (3) And if they happened to be within age, we have always had the ward and marriage of every of them : (4) And if he be tenant unto another Lord, and not to us (the sisters being within age) the Lord shall have the ward and marriage of them all, and the eldest only shall do homage for herself and all her sisters. (5) And when the other sisters come to full age, they shall do their service to the Lords of the Fee by the hands of the eldest sister : yet shall not the eldest by this occasion exact of her younger sisters, homage, ward, or any other subjection, for they be all sisters, and in manner as one heir to one inheritance. (6) If the eldest should have homage of the other sisters, and demand wardship, then the inheritance should be divided, so that the eldest sister should be seigniores and tenant of inheritance [simul & semel] that is to say, heir of her own part, and seigniores to her sisters, which could not stand well together in this case, for the elder can demand no more than her sisters, but the chief mease by reason of her ancienty. (7) Moreover, if the elder sister should take homage of the younger, she should be as a seigniores to them all, and should have the ward of them and their heirs ; which should be no other but to cast the Lamb to the Wolf to be devoured. (8) And therefore we command you, that you caufe the aforesaid Customs that be used within our Realm of England in this case, to be proclaimed throughout our Dominion of Ireland, and to be straightly kept and obſerved. In testimony whereof, &c. I witness myſelf at Westminster, the ix. day of February, in the xiv. year of our Reign.

Statutum de Hibernia is ſaid not to be a Statute in the old Abridgement, Tit. Homage, but is inserted as one in the English Editions.

King's Demeans, and shall approve them as they shall think best for the King's Advantage, and shall be answerable for the Issues: (4) And they shall have Power to let forth small Manors and Demeans to folk of the same Places, or to other, according to their Discretion, and shall let them to Ferm from Year to Year, as they shall think most to the King's Profit: And the Fermors shall be chargeable for their Ferms unto the principal Approvers, and they unto the Exchequer, the Monday next after the Ascension, from Year to Year.

The Award made between the King and his Commons at Kenelworth, the 51. yeer of King Henry the thrid.

The Award made between the King and his Commons
at Kenelworth.
51 Hen. 3.
a Ral. Abr.
173.

IN the Name of the holy & undivided Trinitie, Amen. To the honor & glory of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, & the Holy Ghost, of the glorious and most excellent Mother of God, and Virgin Mary, and of all Saints, by whose merites and meenes we are governed in earth, to the honour and good prosperous and peaceable estate of the most Christian Prince, Lord Henry, the noble King of England, and of all the English Church, we William, Bishop of Oxon, W. of Bathe and Welles, H. Worcester and Menevia Bishoppes, Gilbert de Clare, Earle of Gloucester, Humfrey Earle of Hereford, Philip Basset, Iohn Bayloffe, Robert Walp, Alein de la Such, Roger de Sanery, and Warryn de Bafyngburne, appointed to praide for the good estate of the Land, and notably for certayne persons disherited, bearing thereunto full power of our sayd Lord the King, and the other Barons and Counsellors, according to the forme written and confirmed in the Letters general and speciall of the said King, and the other aforesaid, willing to proceede according to the path of equitie by the assent of the Reverend Father Othobone, Deacon, Cardinall of Saint Adrian, and Legate of the Apostolique See, and the Noble man H. of Almaine, having like power and authoritie. we haue thought it good to be provided in this wise, that there shall be made no disherison, but redempcion, that is to wit :

First, concerning them that began the warre, and yet continue.

Item, they that were at Chester field against the King in battell.

Item, they that forcibly and maliciously withheld Northampton against the King.

Item, they that were taken at Kenelworth, which came from the sacking of Winchester, or that other where were against the King, whom he hath not pardoned.

Item, they that warred at Euesham against the King.

Item, they that freely, wilfully, and vncompelled, sent any ayde against the King or his sonne.

Item, the Baylifs and Officers of the Earle of Leicester, which robbed their neighbours, and procured manslaughter, house-burnings, and other evills to be done, shal pay as much as their lands be worth by the space of ffe yeeres. And that they paying their Ransomes, shal haue their lands againe, so that if their lands should be sold, none shall haue them, but hee that holdeth the same of the gift of the King, in case he will give so much as a common Purchasor, and with those termes, that if the party so redeeming his land, doe satisfie for his whole land from the beginning, hee shall forthwith haue his whole land: and likewise hee that satisfieth for the halfe or the third part, shall forthwith haue the halfe, or the third part. But if at the last Tertie appointed, the partie redeeming doe not satisfie, the halfe of the lands remaining, shall remayne to them, to whom they were given by the King's gift. Also the partie redeeming shal be at libertie within that terme to sell all or part of his land, and in like manner to let it to farme. And if any haue Woods, and will sell them towards their Ransome, he that holdeth the land by the King's gift, shal haue a competent fereinft, that shall receiue the money. And the partie disherited, which selleth the Wood, must haue one (in whom he trusteth) and these two Receiuers, in the presence of the whole Shire, shal pay the money received for the Wood, to them to whom redēption ought to be given.

The paymett of this redemption must be done by three yeeres.

Knights and Esquires, which were robbers, and among the principall robbers in warres and rodes, if they haue no lands, but haue goods, shal pay for their ransome the halfe of their goods, and shall finde sufficient fureties to keepe the Peace of the King and of the Realme from henceforth.

They that haue nothing, shall come and sweare by the holy Gospels of God, finding sufficient suretie, that from thenceforth they shall keepe the Peace, and suffer satisfaction and penance after the judgement of the Churh, Except persons banished, to whom onely the king onely may remit.

The Lords of heires within age, shall pay ransome for them, and the heires, when they shall come to full age, shall pay ransome to the Lords at the same terms, wherat other paid by three or two yeers. So that the Lords of such lands shall haue the ward of the heires with marriages without disparagement, untill their lawful age, and the heires shall pay ransome, as other haue payd, and at the same termes.

The custodies which are due to the king, shall remaine to them to whom they were giuen by the king, and when the heires shall come to lawful age, they shall ransome at the same termes as other did, and no Waste must be done by them that haue the custodie, and if there be, justice shall be done against them, according as is contained in Magna Charta.

If any before the battell of Lewis stood on the kings part, and after the battell be disherited, because he would not come to the kings sonne, to his succour: let the king say his pleasure touching such upon his fidelitie.

Woods may not be sold ne wasted by them that hold them now in any wise, but if it be for not keeping the last terme of payment, notwithstanding they to whom the lands were given by the king, shall haue necessaries for the keeping or reparation of the houles, and otherwise doing they shall be grieuously punished.

If there be any, of whom it is supposed, that he will make or procure warre, the Lord Legate and the king shall provide such surety as shall seeme expedient, by sending them out of the Realme for a time, or otherwise as they shall think conuenient, so neuerthelesse, if it fortune such a one to be let from his payment or ransome, hee shall not be disherited therefore.

If there be any not content with this ordinance, let him abide the judgement of the kings Court within the feast of Saint Hillary: Such as be out of the Realme upon lawful cause, shall haue their safe conduct according to the Law and Custome of the Realme for being beyond the sea, so that they keepe themselues in peace, for else they shall not bee in the forme of this Peace.

Because the king is bounden to many that holpe him, and faithfully stood by him, for whom hee hath prouided no lands, and some haue more than they shoulde haue, let the king prouide, that he largely reward them of the ransomes that are to be taken, lest it turne to a matter of new warre.

Let the lord Legate, the king, and Henry of Almaine prouide, that there be chosen twelve, which diligently and faithfully may execute these things, and that the king and his heires may cause them firmly to be kept and maintained. Let them also enquire and fulfill those things, that shall be ordained of the foresaid twelve, according to reasonable and true estimations, and after as the said twelve shall thinke good to be done.

Fermors that were against the king, shall leefe their termes, sauing the right of their Lords, to whom they pay their yearly Rent, and they that shall haue the Fermes after the termes expired, shall render them to the true Lords.

Concerning Castles builded by the kings Charters, and by his consent, and yet disherited without his consent, wee award, that after after the ransome payd, within the space of three yeeres, the Lord of the land shall pay within six yeeres the costs which were layd upon them afore this general proclamation by consent of the king, or by reasonable exchange of land.

Lay men that openly procured the busynesse of the Earle of Leicester, his complices drawing men by lies and false tales, and stirring them to the part of the Earle and his adherents, and withdrawing them from the part of the King and his sonne, shall be punished by as much as the two yeeres value of their land doth amount.

Such as were compelled, or driuen by feare vnto the battell, and neither fought, ne did hurt: Likewise impotent persons, which either by force or feare sent their seruants against the King and his sonne: And those which being constrained or led by feare were robbers, and did robberies with the principall robbers, and when they saw opportunitie withdrew, and returned to their houses, and those also that wittingly bought others goods shal restore the value of the goods, which they robbed or bought in such manner, and shall be amerced to the King for that they did against Justice, and because the king did forbid the same, halfe a yeere now passed.

They that by the commandment of the Earle of Leicester, entered into Northampton, & neither fought ne did harme, but fled to the Church when they espied the king comming, and that being found by lawfull persons: Likewile they that held not of the sayd Earle and come at his commandment, shall pay the halfe yeeres value of their land: But they that held of the Earles fee, shall onely be amerced to the king.

Impotent men and other, which did no harme, shall be restored to their lands without delay, and recover their damages in the kings Court. Let false accusers be punished against the king in such wise as he beleue them not lightly thereafter. And such punishment must be done of them as belongeth to them, that wrongfully haue caused the kings lieges to be disherited and vndone, without perill of life, maiming, and disherison.

They that were accused by malice shall forthwith haue againe their lands, and recover their damages in the kings Court, as is contained in the Article next afore.

Women shall haue their heritages and dowers of the first Lords. Touching their husbands, which were against the king, they shall haue as the king hath ordained, and be ranomed.

The ransome of them that were against the king shall stand in force, but of those which in nothing were against the king, no ransome shall stand: But forthwith shall haue their lands againe, and recover damages, as afore, &c.

Touching persons maliciously accused, it hath bee[n] already spoken, and that the accusers shoulde be punished, as afore is sayd, by submitting themselues to the Award of the king and of other Lords, or else the thing by concord or peace made, shall stand in his force.

All persons receiued to the Peace by thosē that had commission thereunto shall remaine in such estate as when they were received.

All that be ransomed, shall not be bounded to answer for the harmes and trespasses done by them in the time of the commotion aforefayd, but hurts and trespasses shall be forgiuen of either party. Sauing neuerthelesse, the exactiōn to every man that he shall not intermedie of the sayd commotion sauing that that pertaineth to the Church.

Because it seemed dangerous that castles should be in the power of them, which offended against the king, we Award and ordaine touching the castles of Herdley, Byham, and Chertsey, that a reasonable exchange shall be given for them.

Touching Simon de Mountford, Earle of Leicester, his Countesse and children we say nothing, for the King hath put their matter into the hands of the King of Fraunce.

Touching London we command it, and exhort the King, that he by his counsell will prouide a reformation for the stās of the citie, as concerning their lands, rents, houses and liberties, and that the same prouision may be made immediatly.

Concerning the Earle de Ferris, we Award that he be punished by as much as the value of his lands shall amount unto in. vii. yeeres.

All those of the castell shall be in the common forme of peace, except Henry de Hastings, and those that maimed the Kings messenger, which shall be imprisoned. vii. yeeres, or else put themselves in the Kings mercy.

Let all men from henceforth keepe the Peace firmly, and let none commit burning of houses, robberies, nor other outrages against the Peace, and whoſo doeth, and be convict thereof shall haue iudgment according to the law of the land.

Moreover, all that haue to doe in this behalfe, shall fweare upon the holy Gospels of God, that none ſhall take reuengement, ne procure to be taken, nor conſent or ſuffer that any reuengement be taken by occation of the commotion aforefaid. And if any take reuengement, he ſhall be punished after the custome of the Kings court.

Let the Church be ſatisfied by them that haue hurt her in any point.

If there be any that will not obſerue this Award, nor abide the iudgement of the King by his Peers: all that be ſuch ſhall be of the number of the diſherited, and ſhall haue no law to recouer their lands. And if any holding the lands of any person diſherited, be found rebell to this Award: he ſhall not be admitted to challenge any right in the land or ransome given him by the King.

Moreover whoſo will not agree to this Award, let him be had as enemie of the king, and his ſonnes, and of all the communitie. And people and Clergy (as farforth as the lawes and commons doe permit) ſhall pursue him as enemie of the Peace of the Church and of the Realme.

Such

Such as be imprisoned, and in ward, finding sufficient and reasonable surety, shall be deliuered by pledges, or by other assurance competent and reasonable, according to the prouision of the Lord Legate, and the king.

Moreover no man by occasion of the foresayd commotion, may hereafter disherit any person that by any law ought to succeede him.

A Statute of Quo Warranto, made at Gloucester, Anno 6 EDW. I. †

Claiming and using of Liberties, and Causes to seise them into the King's Hands. Complaint of Officers.

THE Year of our Lord M.CC.LXX.VIII. the Sixth <sup>2 Inst. 279.</sup> Year of the Reign of King EDWARD, at Gloucester, in the Month of August, the King himself providing for the Wealth of his Realm, and the more full Ministrition of Justice, as to the Office of a King belongeth (the more discreet Men of the Realm, as well of high as of low Degree, being called thither) (2) it is provided and ordained, That whereas the Realm of England in divers Cases, as well upon Liberties as otherwise, wherein the Law failed, to avoid the grievous Damages and innumerable Disherisons that the Default of the Law did bring in, had Need of divers Helps of new Laws, and certain new Provisions, these Provisions, Statutes, and Ordinances underwritten shall from henceforth be straitly and inviolably observed of all the Inhabitants of his Realm. (3) And whereas Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other of our Realm, that claim to have divers Liberties,

† This is a Translation of the first Part of the Statute of Gloucester, as entered on the Roll, and being supposed by many to have been enacted 30 Ed. 1. has been usually inserted in that Year and omitted in the 6 Ed. 1. by Mistake. a Inst. 279, 280.

which to examine and judge, the King hath prefixed a Day to such Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other; it is provided and likewise agreed, That the said Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other shall use such Manner of Liberties, after the Form of the Writ here following:

A Writ to the Sheriff to permit all Men to enjoy those Liberties which they had before.

[II. Rex vic' salutem. Cum nuper in parliamento nostro apud Westmonasterium, per nos & concilium nostrum provisum sit & proclamatum, quod prelati, comites, barones, & alii de regno nostro, qui diversas libertates per chartas progenitorum nostrorum regum Anglie habere clamant, ad quas examinandas & judicandas diem praefixerimus in eodem parliamento, libertatibus illis taliter uteinentur, quod nihil sibi per usurpationem seu occupationem accrescerent, nec aliquid super nos occuparent. Tibi præcipimus, quod omnes illos de comitatu tuo libertatibus suis, quibus hucusque rationabiliter usi sunt, uti & gaudere permittas in forma prædicta, usque ad proximum adventum nostrum per comitatum prædictum, vel usque ad proximum adventum justiciariorum itinerantium ad omnia placita in comitatu, vel donec aliud inde præcepimus: salvo semper jure nostro cum inde loqui voluerimus. Teste, &c.]

III. In like Manner and in the same Form Writs shall be directed to Sheriffs and other Bailiffs for every Demandant, and the Form shall be changed after the Diversity of the Liberty which any Man claimeth to have, in this wise:

[IV. Rex vic' salutem. Præcipimus tibi, quod per totam ballivam tuam videlicet, tam in civitatibus, quam in burgis, & aliis villis mercatorii, & alibi, publice proclamari facias, quod omnes illi qui aliquas libertates per chartas progenitorum nostrorum regum Angliae vel alio modo, habere clamant, sint coram justiciariis nostris ad primam assisam, cum in partes illas venerint, ad ostendendum quomodo hujusmodi libertates habere clamant, & quo warranto, & tu ipse sis ibidem personaliter una cum ballivis & ministris ad certificandum ipsos justiciarios super his & aliis negotiis illud tangentibus.]

V. This Clause of Liberties, that beginneth in this wise, Præcipimus tibi, quod publice proclamari facias, &c. is put in the Writ of common Summons of the Justices in Eyre, and shall have a Premonition by the Space of forty Days, as the common Summons hath; (2) so that if any Party that claimeth to have a Liberty, be before the King, he shall not be in Default before any Justices in their Circuits; for the King of his special Grace hath granted, that he will save that Party harmless as concerning that Ordinance. (3) And if the same Party be impleaded upon such manner of Liberties before one or two of the foreaid Justices, the same Justices, before whom the Party is impleaded, shall save him harmless before the other Justices; and so shall the King also before him, when it shall appear by the Justices, that so it was in Plea before them as is aforesaid. (4) And if the foreaid Party be afore the King, so that he cannot be the same Day afore the said Justices in their Circuits, the King shall save that Party harmless before the foreaid Justices in their Circuits

Circuits for the Day, whereas he was before the King. (5) And Liberties seised into the King's Hands in Name of Distress, by the Sheriff of the Place, so that they shall not use them until they come to answer before the Justices; (6) and when they do come in by Distress, their Liberties shall be repleviced (if they demand them) in the which Replevins they shall answer immediately after the Form of the Writ aforesaid; (7) and if percase they will challenge, and say that they are not bounden to answer thereunto without an original Writ, then if it may appear by any mean, that they have usurped or occupied any Liberties upon the King, or his Predecessors, of their own Head or Presumption, they shall be commanded to answer incontinent without Writ, and moreover they shall have such Judgement as the Court of our Lord the King will award; (8) and if they will say further, that their Ancestors died seised thereof, they shall be heard, and the Truth shall be inquired incontinent, and according to that Judgment shall be given; (9) and if it appear that their Ancestors died seised thereof, then the King shall award an Original out of the Chancery in this Form: [Rex vic' salutem. Sum' per bonos summon' talem, quod sit coram nobis apud talem locum in proximo adventu nostro in com' prædict' vel coram justiciariis nostris ad proximam assisam, cum in partes illas venerint, ostensurus quo warranto tenet visum francipleg' in manerio suo de N. vel sic, quo warranto tenet hundredum de S. in com' prædict'; vel, quo warranto clamat habere thelonium pro se & haeredibus suis per totum regnum nostrum; & habeas ibi hoc breve. Teste, &c.] (10) And if they come in at the same Day, they shall answer, and Replication and Rejoinder shall be made; (11) and if they do not come, nor be esjoined before the King, and the King do tarry longer in the same Shire, the Sheriff shall be commanded to cause them to appear the fourth Day; (12) at which Day if they come not, and the King be in the same Shire, such Order shall be taken as in the Circuit of Justices; (13) and if the King depart from the same Shire, they shall be adjourned unto short Days, and shall have reasonable Delays according to the Discretion of the Justices, as it is used in personal Actions. (14) Also the Justices in Eyre in their Circuits shall do according to the foresaid Ordinance, and according as such Manner of Pleas ought to be ordered in the Circuit. (15) Concerning Complaints made and to be made of the King's Bailiffs, and of other, it shall be done according to the Ordinance made before thereupon, and according to the Inquests taken thereupon heretofore; (16) and the Clause subscribed shall be put in a Writ of common Summons in the Circuit of the Justices assigned to common Pleas directed to the Sheriff, &c. and that shall be such: [Rex vic' salutem. Præcipimus tibi, quod publice proclamari facias, quod omnes conquerentes, seu conqueri volentes, tam de ministris & aliis ballivis nostris quibuscumque, quam de ministris & ballivis aliorum quorumcunque, & aliis, veniant coram justiciariis A Proclamation, that all, who will complain of the plain of the King's Officers, their Grievances to the Justices. ciariis nostris ad primam assisam, ad quascunque querimonias suas ibidem ostendendas, & competentes emendas inde recipiendas secundum legem & consuetudinem regni nostri, & juxta ordinationem per nos inde factam, & juxta tenorem statutorum nostrorum, & juxta articulos iisdem justiciariis nostris inde traditos, prout praedicti justiciarii tibi scire faciant ex parte nostra. (3) The Remanents of the Firms of the same Shires shall be written post terras datas in the annual Rolls, and the Sheriff's shall be charged therewith; (4) in which Remanents the Liveries and Arms assigned shall be allowed, and other Allowances (if Sheriffs have had any) of the Issues of their Bailiwicks by our Writs. (5) And because of the Suggestion of our Bailiffs, our Writs are made of divers Allowances, unto our grievous Damage, (6) we will and provide, That of such Manner Allowances so to be made, from henceforth View shall be made in our Exchequer; and the same View being faithfully made, the same Treasurer and Barons shall certify our Chancellor of the due Allowances so to be made, and that Writs of Allowances shall be made according to the same Certificate. Vicecomes vero in veredictis & recognitionibus admittendis non querat occasiones versus presentantes, nec capiat ab eis fines per sic quod non occasionentur. Recepto autem veredicto seu presentatione presentantium, Vicecomes statim, vel quam cito poterit, indictatos de maleficiis, quorum pena est mors vel amissio membrorum, capiat, & in prisma distineat, vel per pleios sufficientes dimittat. Et de ceteris capitulis, secundum quod inquisierit, statim fiat correctio & debita executio in omnibus & singulis supradictis.

Provisum est, quod in quolibet Commoto Wallie sit unus Coronator ad minus, qui per breve Domini Regis in forma inter cetera Brevia regia in Rotulo sequenti contenta, in pleno Com. eligatur, & coram Vicecomite ibidem faciat Sacramentum, quod erit fidelis Domino Regi, & quod fideliter faciat & exequetur omnia que ad officium Coronatoris pertinent. Eritque Officium ejus, quod statim postquam ab aliquo requisitus fuerit veniendi ad videndum mortuum interfectum per feloniam vel submersum, aut quoconque alio modo mortuum per infortunium, & etiam ad videndum hominem enormiter vulneratum, de cuius vita desperatur; quod statim mandabit Vicecomiti vel Ballivo Comitati, quod venire faciat coram eo certis die & loco, omnes duodecima annorum & ultra, de villa illa in qua casus contigerit, & de quatuor villatis propinquioribus, & quod per eorum Sacramentum fideliter, caute, & secrete, ac diligenter inquiret de feloniam, de felonibus, & eorum catallis, similiter de facto, & de modo facti, videlicet, quis fuerit culpabilis de facto, quis de vi, & cuiusmodi vi, quis de precepto seu missione, quis etiam de receptamento post factum, & de catallis eorundem hominum qui per inquisitionem inde culpabiles inventi fuerint. Inquirat etiam quis interfactum primo invenerit, & nomen ejus introuletur, & attachetur per plegios, quorum nomina introuletur veniendi ad proximum Comitatum, & etiam coram Justiciario in adventu suo. Et quod facta inquisitione illa, eam statim distincte & aperte intotulari faciat una cum nominibus eorundem qui inventi fuerint culpabiles, & eorum catallis, & quod nomina eorundem scripta Vicecomiti, si presens fuerit, vel Ballivo Comitati secrete liberabit, precipiendo ex parte Domini Regis, quod corpora eorum statim capiantur, & in prona Domini Regis salvo custodiantur, donec inde fecerint rectum in curia Domini Regis; & quod catalla eorundem fideliter appreciari faciat, & tam catalla particulariter quam precium eorundem in Rotulo suo ponet, & eadem catalla per visum Vicecomitis vel Ballivi & aliorum fideliū Domini Regis, qui interfuerint singulis villatis, in quibus catalla predicta inventa fuerint, integrē liberari faciet, ut in adventu Justiciarii Domino Regi fideliter inde respondeant.

Coronator vero, cum fecerit inquisitionem super mortuum, interroget Walescheriam, scilicet, parentelam interfacti; & si quis ex parte patris, & aliis ex parte matris apparuerint, dicendo quod sunt de parentela sua, & hoc per fideles Regis testificatum fuerit, nomina eorum in Rotulo suo statim intotulari faciat: Si autem nullus de parentela compareat, intotulet similiter quod nullus comparet, ut Justiciarius in adventu suo evidenter facere possit quid in hac parte fuerit faciendum.

Coronator etiam diligenter inquirat casum infortunii & modum, & secundum quod invenerit per inquisitionem, distincte inrotulari faciat. Inquirat etiam de inventore, & nomen ejus inrotulari faciat, ut supra.

Preterea cum latro, vel homicida, seu alias malefactor, fugerit ad Ecclesiam, Coronator quam cito sibi constituerit, mandet Ballivo Domini Regis illius Commoti, quod certo die venire faciat coram eo probos & legales homines de vieneto, & in presencia eorum facta recognitione Felonie, fieri faciet Abjurationem hoc modo; quod felo ducatur usque ad portam Ecclesie, & assignetur ei portus per Coronatorem, & extunc abjuret regnum, & secundum quod assignabitur ei portus propinquus vel remotus, prefigatur ei terminus excludendi regnum predictum, ita quod in eundo versus portum illum deferens quandam crucem in manu sua, non declinet a via regali aliquo modo, scilicet a dextris nec a sinistris, sed semper eam teneat quoque regnum exierit.

Et siant formule consumilium Brevium secundum ostensiones petentium & diversitates casuum. Et non siant hujusmodi Brevia de debito coram Justiciario placitanda de minori summa quam de quadraginta solidis; sed placita de debito que summan quadrageinta solidorum non attingunt, in Comitatu placentur, & in Commotis similiter. Et tales eum eligi facias qui melius sciat & possit Officio illi intendere. Et nomine ejus Nobis scire facias. Dat. Et.

Ex ipte insinuetur vel monetur, vel ob aliquam aliam causam Officio illi intendere nequiverit, tunc fiat aliud Breve causatis mutandis.

Placitorum quedam habent terminari per Assisam, quedam per Juratas.

Per Assisam habitent terminari, cum quis seisitus de libero tenemento postea per vim disseisitus petit seisinam sibi restitu. Et in hoc casu provisum est Breve de nova disseisina in forma inter alia Brevia originalia Cancellarie suprascripta. Similiter de communia pasture, cum quis disseisitus de communia pasture sua pertinente ad liberum tenementum suum petit seisinam sibi restitu. & in hoc casu providetur idem Breve de nova disseisina, per mutationes quorundam verborum in forma inter alia Brevia originalia Cancellarie suprascripta, in quibus sic est procedendum.

Primo receptis a querente duobus Pleguis de prosequendo, Vicecomes faciat eligere duodecima liberos & degales homines, &c. de visneto ubi tenementum vel pastura existit, & faciat eos videre tenementum, & similiter pasturam, & attachiet disseisitores, prout continetur in Brevi. Postea, cum partes et Assisa venerint coram Justiciariorum, queratur a querente, de quo libero tenemento, vel de qua communia pasture queritur se disseisiri, & secundum ejus querimoniam & responsionem partis adverse procedatur ad captiōnem Assise, nisi disseisitor aliquid sciat dicere quare Assisa beat remanere. Et si Assisa faciat pro querente, recuperat querens Seisinam suam simul cum dampnis taxatis per Assisam versus disseisitorem, & disseisitor remaneat in misericordia Domini Regis, vel committatur gaole redditus, si disseisina facta fuerit enormiter & vi armata.

Sunt quedam alia Brevia que per Assisam habitent terminari, videlicet, de Stagno levato, prostrato, exaltato; de Fossato levato, vato, vel prostrato; Sepe levata vel prostrata; de Via ob-structa vel arcata; de Curtu aque diverso: Et secundum diversitatem easum diversificetur Breve originale, que quidem Brevia cum Brevibus de nova disseisina superius continentur; & eodem modo sicut supradictum est in Brevi de libero Tenemento & de Communia pasture est procedendum in eisdem.

In supradictis Brevibus Assise nove disseisine nullum jacet Es-sonium seu Dilatio, set prima die procedatur ad justitiam faciendam.

Aliud est Breve Assisarum quando aliquis petit Seisinam tenementi, unde Antecessor suus obiit seisitus, videlicet, Pater, Frater, Avunculus aut Avis; in quo casu provisum est Breve mor-tis Antecessoris in forma inter cetera Brevia in Rotulo predicto contenta.

Contingit etiam aliquando quod petitur Seisina Antecessoris, in casu quando Antecessor non obiit seisitus, set fuit seisitus die quo habitum Religionis suscepit, vel iter perigrinationis aripuit, in quo itinere obiit: Et tunc loco illius clausule, die quo obiit, ponatur, die quo habitum Religionis suscepit, vel iter peregrininationis, &c. in quo itinere, &c. Et si iter, &c. In isto Brevi Antecessoris sic est procedendum.

Primo inventis Plegis de profeundo, & electa Affisa, & visu facto a Juratoribus, summoneatur tenens per duos bonos & legales Summonitores quod sit coram Justiciario ad certum diem, &c. & contineat summonitio quindecima dies ad minas, ad quem diem si venerit, procedat Justiciarius in Officio suo exequendo.
Et si ad diem illum non venerit, puniatur pro defalta sua secundum quod continentur in Lege Wallenfica, scilicet, per tres vaccas vel per precium earundem, & resummonetur per alios duos Summonitores, summonitione similiter continentem spatiu quindecim dierum, sicut predictum est, ad quem diem, five venerit five non, procedat Justiciarius ad Officium suum faciandum, nisi fecerit se essoniari de ultra mare, & tunc dabitur ei spacium quadraginta dierum ut possit habere Eb. & Fld. Set caveat sibi qui se sic essoniaverit, quod si existens intra quatuor maria de ultra mare falso se essoniaverit, & super hoc convincatur per bonam probationem vel per bonam Inquisitionem, puniatur tanquam pro defalta, primo per misericordiam quod continetur in Lege Wallenfica, & precludatur ei Via aliquid dicen-di contra Affisam, nisi vocare possit ad Warrantum.

Et sciendum quod nec in Brevi mortis Antecessoris, nec in alio Brevi de placito terre, jacet aliquod essoniaria, nisi tantum essonium de ultra mare, & hoc antequam tenens vel deforciens apparet in Curia; & essonium de servitio Domini Regis, quod jacet in omni loco placiti, cum Rex illud warrantizare voluerit.
Set caveat sibi quod falso non faciat se essoniari de servitio Domini Regis, quia si deficiat de Warranto Regis, puniatur pro defalta per misericordiam Domino Regi dardam secundum Le-gem Wallenficam, & versus partem adversam de expensis sibi refundendis de illa jorneta secundum discretionem Justiciarii.

In istis Brevibus mortis Antecessor, sic est procedendum.

Lecto primo Brevi in quo continetur petitio Petentis, queratur a Deforciente, si quid sciat dicere quare Assisa debeat remanere; quod si nesciat, capiat Justiciarius Assisam per Juratores qui melius sciant veritatem secundum formam Brevis. Et si Assisa transeat pro Petente, adjudicetur Petenti Seisina cum dampnis taxatis per Juratores, & Deforcens remaneat in misericordia Domini Regis.

Multa quidem potest Deforcens dicere contra Assisam; potest enim vocare ad Warrantum, & tunc exspectandus est adventus Warranti, quem Justiciarius faciat venire, primo per unam Summonitionem, & si necesse sit per Resummonitionem, sicut dictum est de principali Deforciente, & pro defaltâ puniatur sicut predictum est. Post Resummonitionem si nondum venerit, nec se essoniaverit, procedat Assisa versus eum per defaltam. Et si Assisa transeat pro Petente, adjudicetur Petenti Seisina rei petite, & Deforcens habeat de terra Warranti ad valentiam. Si vero Warrantus venerit, & petat sibi ostendi per quod debeat warrantizare, oportet quod Vocator ostendat cartam que faciat mentionem de Watrantia, vel de dono facto a Warranto vel Antecessore suo cuius heres ipse est, in quo fiat mentio quod de Feoffatore & ejus heredibus tenere debeat; vel quod ostendat quod Warrantus sit sejstus de homagio suo pro tenemento petitio, quod habet inquire si dedicitur, per eos in quorum presencia dicet se fecisse homagium simul cum aliis liberis & legalibus hominibus juratis; vel quod teneat tenementum illud in excambium pro alio tenemento. Si per ista poterit Deforcens ducere Warrantum suum ad warrantizandum, remanebit in misericordia Regis quia dedixit warrantizare, & nichilominus considerabitur quod warrantizet & respondeat ad Assisam si voluerit.

Multa alia potest Deforcens dicere contra Assisam, videlicet quod Antecessor de cuius morte, &c. commisit feloniam pro qua fuit suspensus, utlagatus, vel tanquam publicus latro fugiens & juri non parens decapitatus, vel si confitens feloniam coram Coronatore Walliam abjuravit.

Potest etiam Deforcens objicere Petenti Bastardiam, & tunc mandabitur Espiscopo loci, quod rei veritatem super hoc inquirat, & certificet inde capitalem Justiciarum Wallie; & secundum quod Episcopus certificaverit, procedetur ad judicium sine captione Assise. Et si Episcopus mandet quod Bastardus est, precludatur ei via petendi: Et si mandet quod legitimus est, Justiciarius faciet venire Deforcientem per summonitionem, & si necesse sit, per Resummonitionem, reservata Regi misericordia pro defalta ut sepe dictum est. Post Resummonitionem, sive venerit sive non, recuparebit Petens demandam suam per testimonium Episcopi, cuius testimonio non creditur in contrarium, & remanebit in misericordia Regis.

Multa alia potest dicere deforcens que difficile esset enumerare, sicut, Antecessor de cuius morte Assisa arrainata est fuit villanus, & terram tenuit in villenagio, vel quod tenuit ad voluntatem, luntatem, vel ad terminum vite, vel annorum; in quibus casibus Affisa mortis Antecessoris non jacet.

Non debent autem supradictæ Affise nove disseisine & mortis Antecessoris capi, nisi in propriis Com. ne patria laboribus & expensis fatigetur, sed per Justiciarium capiantur Affise bis, ter, vel quater in anno.

Dictum est in parte de Brevibus Affisarum, & de processu eotundem; modo dicendum est de Placitis que terminari habent per Inquisitiones seu per Juratas; quorum quedam sunt de rebus immobilibus, sicut de Tenementis; sive de mobilibus, sicut de debitibus & catallis; quedam de utrisque; quedam de Transgressionibus. Set primo de Tenementis & Immobilibus aliquid est dicendum, de quibus provisum est Breve, cujus forma inter cetera Brevia partium illarum continetur.

Processus istius Brevis est talis.

Primo inventis Plegiis de prosequendo, Vicecomes faciet summoneri per bonos Summonitores Tenentem quod sit ad certum diem, ad quem si non venerit, fiat alia summonitio ad aliud diem: Et si ad secundum diem non venerit, summoneatur quod sit ad tertium diem, ad quem si non venerit, nec se effoniari fecerit, adjudicabitur petenti seifina per defaltam, & Deforcens remanebit in misericordia Regis, reservata nichilominus misericordia Regi pro qualibet defalta, ut predictum est.

Cum vero Deforcens comparuerit, quia per verba Brevis non potest sciri petitio Petentis, eo quod multe & quasi infinite sunt rationes petendi, necesse habet illè qui petit, quod narrat versus Deforcientem, & exprimat rationem petitionis sue, & hoc per verba veritatem continentia, sine calumpnia verborum, non observata illa dura consuetudine, Qui cadit a syllaba, cadit a tota causa.

De rationibus petendi quales fint & esse debeant, expedit quod aliquid sub brevitate dicatur.

Multotiens habet Petens jus per hoc, quod Antecessor suus temuit terram petitanū, & fuit inde sefisus ut de jure & de feodo, & tunc necesse habet Petens narrare descensum parentale descendendo ad ipsum. Contingit etiam quod aliquis dimittit terram [suam Tot. & al.] ad terminum vite vel annorum, post quem terminutus ad ipsum vel ad heredes suos terra debet reverti; vel etiam debet ad ipsum reverti post mortem mulieris tenentis in dotē, vel tanquam escheata post mortem tenentis sui Bastardi, qui alium non potest habere heredem nisi de corpore suo legitimate procreatum; vel post mortem tenentis sui Felonis: In quatuor casibus predictis, vel post mortem alicujus, debet terra remanere alii per formam donationis. In hiis casibus & similibus exprimat Petens petitionem suam secundum casum suum, & in casibus illis & consimilibus quibus utendum est Brevi predicto, illo & non alio utatur, & audita ratione Petentis, habeat Tenens visum terre, si petat, & detur dies intra quem fiat visus. Et ad diem datum post visum respondeat Deforcens, qui vocare poterat ad Warrantum per auxilium Curie, sicut dictum est in Brevi mortis Antecessoris. Et Justiciarius faciat venire Warrantum tantum sicut venire fecit principalem per unam Summonitionem, & si necesse sit, per secundam & tertiam, ad quem si non venerit, puniatur tamia pro qualibet defalta, ut predictum est, & adjudicabitur Petenti feisina rei petite per defaltam Warranti, & Deforcens habess de terra Warranti ad valentiam, & Warrantus sit in misericordia. Si Warrantus venerit, & gratis warrantaverit, recipietur ad responsionem & placiti defensionem sine visu terre habendo. Si autem warrantizare desinerit, deducatur placitum de Warrantia inter eos secundum quod dictum est supra in Brevi [mortis Tt. &c. al.] Antecessoris. Si autem Deforcens excipiat contra potentem, quod Antecessor suis cuius feisnam petit, vel aliquis in descendendo, fuerit Bastardus, ita quod ab ipso vel per modum ipsius nichil potest ei descendere, audiatur; vel ostendat cartam Antecessoris sui de Feoffacione, vel alicujus in descendendo de quieta clamantia; & per unus partis affirmationem & alterius negationem descendant partes ad legalem Inquisitionem, & per veredictum Inquisitionis terminetur plaeitum; quia placa de terris in partibus istis non habent terminari per Duellum, neque per magnam Adhiam. Eodem modo, si excipiat quod Antecessor vel aliquis in descendendo commisit Feloniam, per quod sibi non competit actio; in quo casu si ille cui hoc opponitur neget, potius habet negotium terminari per Recordum Justiciarii, vel inquisitionem patrie de suspensione, & etiam per Recordum Coronatorum de utlagaria & abjuratione. Similiter in petitione Testamenti quod debet reverti post terminum proteritum, vel per modum donationis, per affirmationem unius partis & per negationem alterius defendantur ad Inquisitionem patrie, & per veredictum ejus iudicetur.

De alio Articulo, scilicet, de mobilibus, debitis sive catallis, est dicendum, super quo provisum est Brevi de debito in forma prescripta.

In hoc Brevi sic est procedendum.

Primo inventis plegiis de prosequendo, summonetur debitor sive reus quod sit coram Justiciario ad certum diem, ad quem si non venerit, iterum summanetur, & si ad secundum diem non venerit, nec se affoniaverit, adjudicetur Petenti debitum per defaltam, simul cum dampnis per discretionem Justiciarii, vel per Inquisitionem patrie, pro voluntate Justiciarii, & debitor remaneat in misericordia Regis, reservata Regi semper misericordia pro qualibet defulta. Si vero Debitor venerit, necesse habet Actor exprimere petitionem, & rationem sue petitionis, videlicet, quod tenetur ei in centum marcis, quas sibi accommodavit, cuius solutionis dies præterit, vel pro terra, vel pro equo, vel pro aliis rebus seu catallis quibuscumque sibi venditis, vel pro arreragis redditus non provenientis de tenuementis, vel de aliis contradicibus, super quibus necesse habet producere festam vel. cartam obligationis, vel talliam ostendere. Auditæ & intellecta petitione, & etiam ratione Petentis, respondet Debitor, qui si debitum recognoscat, adjudicetur & levetur de terris & catallis, &c. Si neget debitum, & proficeratur contra eum obligatio sua, operatur et scriptum verificari per testes nominatos in obligatione; si sunt superfluitates, simul cum patria. Et si non sint testes nominati, vel si fuerint mortui, verificetur solammodo per patram, & secundum verodictum patrie procedatur ad judicium. Si vero querens non habeat obligationem, set tantummodo producatur regata vel talismus, poterit pars adverfa defendere [al. offendere, Tert. &c. al.] se ei in nullo teneri, & hoc defendere per legem, scilicet per proprium Sacramentum cum undecima secum juratisibus, vel per patram, prout eligere voluerit.

Contingit aliquando quod debitor confiteretur quod aliquando debuit ei debitum, & allegat solutionem; tunc oportet ostendere acquiescantiam de solutione, vel poterit Petens defendere per legem se nichil recepisse, vel etiam per patram, &c.

Istud Breve de debito non concedatur de minori summa quam quadraginta solidis, quia de minore debito placent in Comitatu sine Brevi & per Breve.

De tertio articulo in quo provisum est Breve de conventione, per quod petuntur aliquando mobilia, aliquando immobilia; per vim conventionis inita inter partes, que legi derogat, in forma in loco prenotato conscripta:

Processus istius Brevis talis est.

Inventis primo Plegatis de prosequendo, summonebitur Regis servus, & si necesse sit secundo; & si ad secundam summonitionem non venerit, nec se effoniaverit, audiatur petitio & ratio Petentis, & capiatur res petita, si sit tenementum, in manum Regis; & si fuerit catallum, illud vel ejus valor capiatur in manum Regis, & detur aliis dies; & si infra quindecim dies replegiaverit rem sic in manum Regis captam, & ad diem sibi datum venierit, admittetur ad responsionem & defensionem: Si autem, adjudicetur Petenti sua petitio per defaultam, simul cum dampnis taxatis, sicut supra dicitur in Brevi de debito, & remaneat in misericordia Regis, salva semper Regi misericordia pro defacta, ut predictur. Audita querittonia Querentis, & ratione sue petitioris, respondeat Defendens, & per affirmationem unius partis & negationem alterius poterit ad Inquisitionem, & per Inquisitionem patrie poterit negotium terminari.

Et seconde est, quod per Breve de conventione aliquando percutit librum tenementum, ut in casu quando aliquis dimisit terram alteri reddendo inde quendam certam firmam, apposita conditione in Scripto conventionis, quod nisi ei fuerit faciebat rem de terra, liceat ei terram quam dimisit ingredi & tenere. Si ille ei terra fuerit dominus, non satisficerit de firma; & ille qui dimisit, non habet potestatem secundum tenorem scripti sui ingrediendi terram quam dimisit propter potentiam sui Adversari; in hoc casu per Breve de conventione recuperare debet tenementum simul cum dampnis.

Aliquando cum conveniat inter aliquos quod unus feoffabit alium de aliquo tenemento, & ad certam diem ei seipsum faciat, si postmodum transiulerit illud tenementum in tertiam personam ipsam feoffando, cum non poterit illud feoffamentum per prius contractum ad effectum non productum inserviri, non poterit terit in isto casu cui sit injuria, per Breve de conventione subveniri, nisi in hoc tantum ut satisfiat ei de dampnis in pecunia. Et sic in casu competit actio petendi tenementum per Breve de conventione, & in casu pecuniam seu dampna sine tenemento.

Et quia infiniti sunt contractus conventionum, difficile esset facere mentionem de quolibet in speciali, sed secundam naturam cuiuslibet conventionis per affirmationem unius partis & negationem alterius, aut pervenietur ad Inquisitionem faciendam super facto negotii, aut pervenietur ad cognitionem Scriptorum in judicio prolatorum, & secundum illam cognitionem erit judicandum; aut negabuntur Scripta & tunc pervenietur ad inquirendum de confessione Scriptorum per testes in Scriptis nominatos, si fuerint simul cum patria; quod si testes non fuerint nominati, vel etiam mortui, tunc solummodo per patrem.

De quarto Articulo, videlicet, de Transgressionibus personaliis, de quibus provisum est quod omnes Transgressiones, unde dampna non excedunt quadraginta solidos, placentur coram Vicecomite in Comitatu sine Brevi per Vadios & Plegios: Transgressiones que excedunt summam quadraginta solidorum, placentur coram Justiciario Wallie sub hac forma.

Quod antequam Justiciarius eum audiat, juret Querens quod actio sua excedat summam [al. valorem, Tot & al.] quadraginta solidorum, & hoc facto, & Plegis inventis de prosequendo, precipiat Justiciarius Vicecomiti vel Ballivo loci, quod in brevi termino faciat venire coram eo eum de quo sit querimonia, & audita querimonia Actoris respondeat Reus; & cum vix in placo transgressionis evadere poterit Reus quin defendat se per patriam, de consensu partium inquirat veritatem Justiciarius per bonam patriam, & inquisita veritate, si invenerit Reum culpabilem, castiget eum per Prisonam vel per Redemptionem, vel per Misericordiam, & per Dampna Leo restituenda secundum qualitatem & quantitatem delicti, ita quod castigatio illa sit aliis in exemplum, & timorem prebeat delinquendi. Et quia dictum est supra de consensu partium, contingere poterit quod Reus refutabit Inquisitionem patrie; in quo casu si Actor transgressionem sibi factam offerat verificare per patriam, & Reus patriam refutaverit, habeatur pro convicto, & puniatur. sicut si convictus esset per patriam.

Et quia Mulieres non extiterant dotate hactenus in Wallia, Rex concedit quod dotentur. Duplex est dos mulieris: Una est, assignatio tertie partis totius terre que fuit viri sui in vita sua super quo fiat Breve de rationabili dote alibi in suo loco cum ceteris Brevibus Wall. expressum.

Processus istius Brevis est talis.

Inventis Plegis de prosequendo, summoneatur Deforcens quod sit ad certum diem, ad quem si non venerit, iterum summoneatur, ad quem diem si non venerit, adjudicetur mulieri dos sua, scilicet tercia pars, &c. simul cum dampnis, &c. Si vero Deforcens venerit, admittatur ad responsionem sine visa terre terre habendo, & formata petitione mulieris, dicatur Tenenti quod respondeat si sciat aliquid dicere quare ipsa dotem habere non debeat; qui si nichil sciat dicere, recuperet mulier ut supra.

Si forte objiciat quod non debeat dotem habere, eo quod nuncquam fuit tali quam ipsa vocat virum legitimo matrimonio copulata; tunc mandabitur Episcopo, quod super hoc inquirat veritatem, & inquisita veritate, certificet Justiciariorum Wallie, & secundum certificationem Episcopi procedatur ad judicium in hac forma.

Si Episcopus certificet quod non fuit uxor legitima, preclusa erit ei via habendi dotem: Si certificet quod fuit uxor legitima, summoneatur Tenens quod sit ad certum diem auditurus judicium suum, ad quem diem si non venerit, iterum summoneatur quod sit ad aliud diem, ad quem diem sive venerit sive non, nullo effonio allocato, recuperabit Mulier dotem suam & dampna, & Tenens in misericordia, salva Regi semper misericordia pro defactis.

Si vero objiciat quod non debeat dotem habere, eo quod vir fuit die quo eam desponsavit, nec unquam postea tenuit tenementum unde perit dotem in feodo, ita ut eam inde dotare potuit, hujus rei veritas per patriam solummodo est inquirenda, & per veredictum patrie ad judicium erit procedendum.

Si objiciatur ei quod non debet dotem habere eo quod vis fuit consummata feloniam, tunc si constiterit de felonia dotem non recuperabit.

Si similiter si objiciatur ei quod vir sibi amissit terram de qua petit dotem per judicium, ut illam in quam jus non habuit; & hoc convincio per recordum Justiciariorum si dedicatur coram quibusc terrena illa fuit amissa, vel per patriam si in Comitatu vel minore Curia fuit amissa, preclusa erit sibi via de dote habenda.

Alia dos est quando filius dotat uxorem suam de voluntate patris fui, forma cuius Brevis inter cetera invenietur, cuius processus talis est.

Summanonis Deforcienus sicut in alio Brevi de dote, & eodem modo puniatur contumacia sicut in alio Brevi de dote. Si vero ad diem sibi datum venerit, tunc formata petitione Mulieris, respondeat, & si dedicatur dotatio facta in dicta forma, & consensu dotationis, & convinci poterit per patriam quod vir dotavit eam ad hostium Ecclesie de tenemento patris sui, & quod pater personaliter vel per specialem nunciun ad hoc misum consenxit illi dotationi, recuperabit Mulier dotem & dampna.

Sciendum est etiam quod in utroque Brevi potest Tenens vocare ad warrantum per auxilium Curie, & procedetur in platico warrantie sicut predictum est.

Set est differentia in casu isto de Dote & in casu superiorius per Precipe ubi terminatur modus procedendi, in warrantia, quia ibi in illo casu Petens semper recuperat rem petitam, & Tenens de terra warranti ad valenciam. In casu de Dote alio modo est quod Tenens tepebit in pace, & Mulier habebit de terra warranti warranti ad valentiam Dotis petite, dum tamen Tenens habeat de terra viti fui ad valenciam, unde hoc fieri possit; alias vero non.

De modo Dotis aliter assignande nichil ad presens.

Quia aliter usitatum est in Wallia quam in Anglia quod faccionem hereditatis, eo quod hereditas partibilis est inter he-redes masculos, & a tempore cuius non extitit memoria partibilis extitit, Dominus Rex non vult quod consuetudo illa abrogetur, sed quod hereditates remaneant partibiles inter consimiles heredes, sicut esse consueverunt, & fiat partitio hereditatis illius sicut fieri consuevit, hoc excepto, quod Baffordi non habeant de cetero hereditates, & etiam quod non habeant de cetero propartes cum legitimis nec sine legitimis.

Et si forte hereditas aliqua extunc pro defectu heredis masculi descendat ad legitimas Mulieres heredes ultimi Antecessoris sui inde seisti, volumus de gratia nostra speciali quod eadem Mulieres legitime habeant propartes suas inde sibi in Curia nostra assignandas licet hoc sit contra consuetudinem Wallensium in-tea usitata.

Et quia Wallenses Nobis supplicarunt, ut eis concedamus, quod de rebus suis immobilibus, veluti de terris & tenementis; inquiratur veritas per bonos & legales homines de vicino de consensu partium electos; & de mobilibus, sicut de contracti-bus, debitis, fiduciationibus, conventionibus, transgressionibus; et allis, & omnibus aliis hujusmodi mobilibus, uti possint Lege Wallensica, qua uti consueverunt, que talis erat, Quid si quis conquereretur de alio de contractibus vel factis in tali loco, quod posset intentio Querentis probari per videntes & audientes; cum Querens per hujusmodi testes, quorum testimonium reprobari non possit probaverit intentionem strati, recuperaret rem petitam, & condemnaretur pars adversaria: Et in aliis que non possent probari per videntes & audientes, esset pars defensiva ad purgationem suam, aliquando cum pluribus, ali-quando cum paucioribus, secundum qualitatem & quantitatem rei vel facti; & in surto, si furtum inventatur in omni, se purgare non posset, set pro coivative haberetur:

Nos pro communi pace & quiete predicti Populi nostri Terre noste Wallie Premissa eis concedimus: Ita tamen quod ea in furtis, latrociniis, incendiis, murdris, homicidiis, & roberis manifestis & notoriis locum non habeant, nec ad ea aliquatenus se extendant: in quibus volumus quod utantur Legibus Anglie; prout superius est expressum.

Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod Premissa de cetero in omnibus firmiter observetis. Ita tamen quod quotiescumque & quandocumque & ubicunque Nobis placuerit, possimur predicta Statuta & eorum partes singulas declarare, interpretari, addere si &

WHEREAS of late our Lord the King, in the Quinzim of Saint John Baptist, <sup>2 Inst. 331</sup> the Sixth Year of his Reign, calling together the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and his Council at Gloucester, and considering that divers of this Realm were disberited, by Reason that in many Cases, where Remedy should have been had, there was none provided by him nor his Predecessors, ordained certain Statutes right necessary and profitable for his Realm, whereby the People of England and Ireland, being Subjects unto his Power, have obtained more speedy Justice in their Oppressions, than they had before; and certain Cases, wherein the Law failed, did remain undetermined, and some remained to be enacted, that were for the Reformation of the Oppressions of the People: Our Lord the King in his Parliament, after the Feast of Easter, holden the Thirteenth Year of his Reign at Westminster, caused many Oppressions of the People, and Defaults of the Laws, for the accomplishment of the said Statutes of Gloucester, to be rehearsed, and therupon did provide certain Acts, as shall appear here following:

FIRST, Concerning Lands that many Times are given upon Condition, that is to wit, Where any giveth his Land to any Man and his Wife, and to the Heirs begotten of the Bodies of the same Man and his Wife, with such condition expressed, that if the same Man and his Wife die without Heirs of their Bodies between them begotten, the Land so given shall revert to the Giver or his Heir. (2) In case also where one giveth Lands in free Marriage, which Gift hath a Condition annexed, though it be not expressed in the deed of Gift, which is this, That if the Husband and Wife die without Heir of their Bodies begotten, the Land so given shall revert to the Giver or his Heir. (3) In case also where one giveth Land to another, and the Heirs of his Body issuing; it seemed very hard, and yet seemeth to the Givers and their Heirs, that their Will being expressed in the Gift, was not heretofore, nor yet is observed. (4) In all the Cases aforesaid, after Issue begotten and born between them (to whom the Lands were given under such Condition) heretofore such Feoffees had Power to aliene the Land so given, and to disherit their Issue of the Land, contrary to the Minds of the Givers, and contrary to the Form expressed in the Gift. (5) And further, When the Issue of such Feoffee is failing, the Land so given ought to return to the Giver or his Heir, by Form of

IN primis de tenementis que multotiens dantur sub conditione videlicet cum aliquis dat terram suam alicui viro & ejus uxori & heredibus de ipsis viro & muliere procreatis adjecta conditione expressa tali quod si hujusmodi vir & mulier sine herede de ipsis viro & muliere procreato obissent terra sic data ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem revertatur. In casu etiam cum quis dat tenementum in liberum maritagium quod donum habet conditionem annexam licet non exprimatur in carta doni que talis est quod si vir & mulier sine herede de ipsis procreato obierint tenementum sic datum ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem revertatur. In casu etiam cum quis dat tenementum alicui & heredibus de corpore suo ex euntibus durum videbatur & adhuc videtur hujusmodi donatoribus & heredibus donatorum quod voluntas ipsorum in donis suis expressa non fuerit prius nec adhuc est observata. In omnibus enim predictis casibus post problem fuscitatem & ex euntem ab ipsis quibus tenementum sic fuit datum conditionaliter hucusque habuerunt hujusmodi feoffati potestatem alienandi tenementum sic datum & exheredandi de tenemento exitum ipsorum contra voluntatem donatorum & formam de dono expressam. Et preterea cum deficiente exitu de hujusmodi feoffatis tenementum sic datum ad donatorum vel ad ejus heredem reverti debuit per formam in carta de dono expressam licet licet exitus si quis fuerit obisset per factum & seoffamentum ipsorum quibus tenementum sic fuit datum sub conditione exclusi fuerunt hucusque de reverione eorundem tenementorum quod manifeste fuit contra formam doni sui.

Propter quod dominus Rex perpendens quod necessarium & utile est in predictis casibus apponere remedium statuit quod voluntas donatoris secundum formam in carta doni sui manifeste expressam de cetero obseretur ita quod non habent illi quibus tenementum sic fuit datum sub conditione potestatem alienandi tenementum sic datum quo minus ad exitum illorum quibus tenementum sic fuerit datum remaneat post eorum obitum vel ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem si exitus deficiat per hoc quod nullus sit exitus omnino vel si aliquis exitus fuerit per mortem deficit herede hujusmodi exitus deficiente. Nec habeat de cetero secundus vir hujusmodi mulieris aliquid in tenemento sic dato per conditionem post mortem uxoris ejus per Legem Anglie nec exitus de secundo viro & muliere successionem hereditariam sit statim post mortem viri & mulieris quibus tenementum sic fuit datum post eorum obitum vel ad eorum exitum vel ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem ut predictum est revertatur.

Et quia in novo casu novum remedium est apponendum fiat impetranti tale breve :

the Gift expressed in the Deed, though the Issue (if any were) had died : (6) Yet by the Deed and Feoffment of them (to whom Land was so given upon Condition) the Donors have heretofore been barred of their Reversion, which was directly repugnant to the Form of the Gift.

II. Wherefore our Lord the King, perceiving how necessary and expedient it should be to provide Remedy in the aforesaid Cases, hath ordained, That the Will of the Giver, according to the Form in the Deed of Gift manifestly expressed, shall be from henceforth observed ; so that they to whom the Land was given under such Condition, shall have no Power to aliene the Land so given, but that it shall remain unto the Issue of them to whom it was given after their Death, or shall revert unto the Giver, or his Heirs, if Issue fail (whereas there is no Issue at all) or if any Issue be, and fail by Death, or heir of the Body of such Issue failing. (2) Neither shall the second Husband of any such Woman from henceforth, have any Thing in the Land so given upon Condition, after the Death of his Wife, by the Law of England, nor the Issue of the second Husband and Wife shall succeed in the Inheritance, but immediately after the Death of the Husband and Wife (to whom the Land was so given) it shall come to their Issue, or return unto the Giver, or his Heir, as before is said.

(3) And if a Fine be levied hereafter upon such Lands, it shall be void in the Law ; (4) neither shall the Heirs, or such as the Reversion belongeth unto, though they be of full of Age, within England, and out of Prison, need to make their Claim. The Mischiefs

FORASMUCH as Lords of Fees distressing their Tenants for Services and Customs due unto them, are many times grieved, because their Tenants do replevy the Distress by Writ, or without Writ : (2) And when

II. It is provided and ordained from henceforth, That where such Lords cannot obtain Justice in Counties and such manner of Courts against their Tenants, as soon as they shall be attached at the Suit of their Tenants, a Writ shall be granted to them to remove the Plea before the Justices, afore whom, and none other where, Justice may be ministered unto such Lords; and the Cause shall be put in the Writ, because such a Man distained in his Fee for Services and Customs to him due. (4) For though it appear at the first Shew that the Tenant is Plaintiff, and the Lord Defendant, nevertheless, having respect to that, that the Lord hath distained, and sueth for Services and Customs being behind, he appeareth indeed to be rather Actor, or Plaintiff, than Defendant. It is provided, That Sheriffs or Bailiffs from henceforth shall not only receive of the Plaintiffs Pledges for the pursuance of the Suit, before they make Deliverance of the Distress, but also for the Return of the Beasts, if Return be awarded. (2) And if any take Pledges otherwise, he shall answer for the Price of the Beasts, and the Lord that distraineth shall have his Recovery by Writ, that he shall restore unto him so many Beasts or Cattle; (3) and if the Bailiff be not able to restore, his Superior shall restore. (4) And forasmuch as it happeneth sometime, that after the Return of the Beasts is awarded unto the Distrainor, and the Party so distrained, after that the Beasts be returned, doth replevy them again, and when he seeth the Distrainor appearing in the Court ready to answer him doth make Default, whereby return of the Beasts ought to be awarded again unto the Distrainor, and so the Beasts be replevied twice or thrice, and infinitely; and the

Et si ostendere poterit quod vir mulieris non habuit jus in tenemento nec aliquis alias quam

IN case where the Husband, The Wife shall being impleaded for Land, be endowable, though the Land be recovered, against her Husband by Covin, or by Default. after the Death of the Husband the Justices shall award the Wife her Dower, if it be demanded by Writ. (a) But 2 Inst. 347— in case where the Husband 353. loseth the Land in demand by Default, if the Wife after the Death of her Husband, demandeth her Dower, it hath been proved, that some Justices have awarded unto the Woman her Dower notwithstanding the Default which her Husband made, other Justices being of the contrary Opinion, and judging otherwise. To the intent that from henceforth such Ambiguity shall be taken away, it is thus ordained in certain, That in both Cases the Woman demanding her Dower shall be heard. (3) And if it be alledged against her, that her Husband lost the Land, whereof the Dower is demanded by Judgement, whereby she ought not to have Dower, and then it be enquired by what Judgement, and it be found that it was by Default, whereunto the Tenant must answer; then it behoveth the Tenant to answer further, and to shew that he had Right, and hath in the foresaid Land, ac-according to the Form of the Writ that the Tenant before purchased against the Husband.

(4) And if he can shew that the Husband of such Wife had no Right in the Lands, nor any other but he that holdeth them, the Tenant shall go quit, and the Wife shall recover nothing of her Dower; which Thing if he cannot shew, the Wife shall

(5) And so in these Cases, and in certain other following, that is to say, When the Wife being endowed loseth her Dower by Default, and Tenants in free Marriage, by the Law of England, or for Term of Life, or in Featail; divers Actions do concur for such Tenants, when they must demand their Land lost by Default: (6) And when it is come to that Point, that the Tenants must be compelled to shew their Right, they cannot make answer without them to whom the Reversion of Right belongeth; therefore it is granted unto them to vouch to Warranty, as if they were Tenants, if they have a Warranty. (7) And when the Warrantor hath warranted, the Plea shall pass between him that is seised and the Warrantor, according to the Tenor of the Writ that the Tenant purchased before, and by which he recovered by default; (8) and so from many Actions at length they shall resort to one Judgement, which is this, That the Demandants shall recover their Demand, or the Tenants shall go quit. Forasmuch as Merchants, which heretofore have lent their Goods to divers Persons, be fallen in Poverty, because there is no speedy Remedy provided, whereby they may shortly recover their Debt at the Day of Payment ; (2) and for this Cause many Merchants do refrain to come into the Realm with their Merchandise, to the Damage of such Merchants and of all the Realm ; (3) the King and his Council at his Parliament holden at Acton Burnel, after the Feast of St. Michael, the eleventh Year of his Reign, hath ordained these Establishments thereupon for the Remedy of such Merchants ; which Ordinances and Establishments, the King commandeth that they shall be firmly kept and observed throughout this Realm, whereby Merchants may have Remedy, and lesse Trouble and Business to recover their Debts, than

THE King to his Judges sendeth Greeting. Use yourselves circumspectly in all Matters concerning the Bishop of Norwich and his Clergy, not punishing them if they hold Plea in Court Christian of such Things as be meer spiritual, that is to wit, of Penance enjoined by Prelates for deadly Sin, as Fornication, Adultery, and such like, for the which sometimes Corporal Penance, and sometime Pecuniary is enjoyned, specially if a Freeman be convict of such Things. (2) Also if Prelates do punish for leaving the Church-yard unclosed, or for that the Church is uncovered, or not conveniently decked, in which Cases none other Penance can be enjoined but Pecuniary.

Et si clericus vel Religiosus decimas suas in horreo congregatas vel alibi existentes vendiderit pro pecunia alicui & implacetur in Cur' Christianitatis locum habet regia prohibitio quia per venditiones res spirituales sunt temporales & sic transiunt decime in catallis.

William Butler, which is Not a Statute, within Age, and in Ward Maynard's of our Lord the King, hath shewed unto his Highness, that where Gawin Butler his Brother (whose Heir he is) had impleaded one Walter de Hapton by the King's Writ for Waste and Destruction made by him the said Walter in certain his Lands and Tenements, which the same Walter held for Term of his Life, of the Inheritance of the foresaid Gawin in Wimme and Thirke; and the foresaid Gawin, before he had obtained Judgement, died, after whose death the foresaid William by like Writ impleaded the foresaid Walter for the Waste and Destruction made by him of long Time. The same Walter, before Gilbert Thornton and his Companions assigned to bear the King's Pleas, came in, and said, that he ought not to answer to the same William for the Waste and Destruction made in the Time of another, before the Right of the said Inheritance descended unto him, and thereupon demanded Judgement. (2) And forasmuch as certain Justices did not agree in giving of the said Judgement, because it seemed to some that it should not be agreeable to the Law, that any Person should obtain Advantage and Recompence by the foresaid Writ, which is a Writ of Trespass done to a Person certain, but only the same Person to whom and in whose Time the Trespass was done; (3) other Justices, with the more Part of the King's Council, were in the contrary Opinion, alledging by divers Reasons, that the said William ought to be heard and answered unto, and all other whatsoever they be, in like Cases or in like Trespasses: And because like Matters have remained not amended, and Trespasses unpunished, which was inconvenient:

II. Wherfore our Lord the King, in his full Parliament holden the Day after the Feast of the Purification, in the Twenty-eighth Year of his Reign, by a general Council hath ordained, and from henceforth hath commanded to be straitly observed, That every Heir (in whose Ward soever he be, and as well within Age, as of full Age,) shall have his Recovery by a Writ of Waste in the foresaid Case, and also in other where the same Writ ought to hold Place; (2) and it shall hold Place as well for Waste and Destruction made in Lands and Tenements of his own Inheritance, and as well in the Times of his Ancestors, as at any other Time that the Fee and Inheritance descended unto him, and shall be answered unto therefore; (3) and that he shall recover the Tenements wasted, and Damages, as it is ordained in the Second Statute of Westm' of Damages to be recovered in a Writ of Waste, if the Tenant be convict of Waste.
(4) And it is commanded by the King himself unto the same Gilbert Thornton and his Companions, that they do proceed in the foresaid Matter, and in otherlike from henceforth, and Judgement shall be given according as the Matter is found. (5)
And likewise it is commanded unto the Justices, that they shall cause all the foresaid Things to be straitly observed before them from henceforth.

gis in contraria opinione exist-

*A Sheriff shall levy no more Issues than he bath Warrant for.
His Tallies.*

ITEM ordinavimus de con-cilio nostro quod vicecomi-tes de cetero non onerentur de aliquibus exitibus levandis nec aliquos leuent antequam ex-cant

Time paſſed, as well in the Time of King HENRY of famous Me-mory, our Grandfather, as in our Time, the Parties of ſuch Fines and their Heirs, contrary to the Laws of our Realm of ancient Time uſed, were admitted to ad- null and defeat ſuch Fine, alledging that before the Fine levied, and at the levying thereof, and ſince, the Demandants or Plaintiffs, or their Ancestors, were alway feiſed of the Lands contained in the Fine, or of ſome Parcel thereof; and ſo Fines lawfully levied were many Times unjustly defeated and ad-nullled by Jurors of the Country falſily and malicioſly procured;

(3) we therefore, intending to provide a Remedy in the Pre-miſſes, in our Parliament at Westminſter have ordained, that such Exceptions, Anſwers, or Inquisitions of the Country,

No Exception to a Fine, that the Demand-ant was al-ways feiſed. Rait. 349, &c. 3 Co. 88.

ſhall from henceforth in no wife be admitted contrary to ſuch Recogniſances or Fines. And further we will, That this Statute ſhall as well ex-tend unto Fines heretofore le-vied, as to them that ſhall be levied hereafter. And let the Juſtices ſee that ſuch Notes and Fines, as hereafter ſhall be levied in our Court, be read openly and ſolemnly, and that in the mean Time all Pleas Fines ſhall be openly read, and then all Pleas ſhall ceafe.

WE have also ordained, A Sheriff ſhall by the Advice of our Council, That from henceforth Sheriffs ſhall not be charged ſues, and no of any Issues to be levied, nor more.

shall levy any before they pass out of the Exchequer, there to be delivered by the Extreats of the Justices; (2) and that in the Extreats of Justices every Head shall be charged for Issues forfeited, like as of Amerciaments. (3) And if Peradventure any Sheriff will answer for the Issues of any Recognisor, Pledge or Mainpernor, by him undertaken and returned into our Court, which at the Time of the Return is not able to pay such Issues or Amerciaments, the Sheriff shall be charged, and shall answer therefore in our Exchequer. (4) And let the Shériffs beware under Pain of great Forfeiture, that from henceforth they do make Tallies of all such Money as they or their Officers have received by our Commandment; (5) and that they do not return any where the Names of any Mainpernors, Jurors, or any other, except such Mainpernors, Jurors, or others, according to the Tenour of our Writs being directed to the Sheriffs for the same Cause, be lawfully and manifestly impanelled thereupon. (6) And they shall not return the Names of any Freemen as Pledges, without that they will plainly consent and agree to the same. (7)

A Baron and Clerk of the Exchequer to be sent into every County.

And hereupon we have enacted, That at one Time certain every Year, one Baron and one Clerk of our said Exchequer shall be sent through every Shire of England, to inroll the Names of all such as have paid that Year's Debts exacted on them by green Wax. The Statute of Wards and Relief, made Anno 28
EDW. I. Stat. 1. Anno Dom. 1300.

Who shall be in Ward and pay Relief, and who not. How many Writs there be to recover Wards.

IT is to wit, that where any Relief is given, there Wardship Wright's Ten.
is incident, and contrariwise. (2) And such as hold by <sup>36. to 105.</sup> Tenure by Serjeanty, to go with the King in his Host, there Ward and Relief are incident. (3) And such as hold by Petty Serjeanty as to bear Shield or Spear in the King's Host, or to bear or to carry, there is neither Ward, Marriage, or Relief. (4) Also a free Sokeman shall not give Ward, nor Relief, but he shall double his Rent after the death of his Ancestor, according as he hath used to pay to his Lord, and shall not be unmeasureably grieved. (5) Now somewhat is to be said of the Nature of having Wards. There be two manner of Writs to have Wards; one is, where Lands be holden in Knights-services; the other is, where Lands be holden in Socage. (6) The Ward of Land that is holden in Knights-service belongeth to the chief Lord, and the Marriage, which ought to be without Disparagement, as the great Charter limiteth, until he cometh to the Age of one and twenty Years. (7) The Ward of an Heir that holdeth in Socage, if the Land or Inheritance descend of his Mother's Side, then it belongeth to the next Friend on the Father's Side, and contrariwise. (8) And a Writ to recover Ward may be brought in three Manners, One is, when a Man demandeth Ward of the Land and of the Heir, and that is in Case, when a Man holdeth Land of another, by Knights-service, and the Tenant dieth, then may the chief Lord (if he be deforced) demand the Ward of his Land and Heir, and shall have both Ward and Marriage. (9) Another Manner is, when a Man is infeoffed of a Verge of Land by one Man, and by another of a Carve Land, the second Lord, may not bring a Writ of Ward to recover either the Land or the Heir, for the Ward belongeth to him, of whom he was first infeoffed. (10) The third Manner is, where a Man hath Land in his Hands by Reason of a Ward, and hath not the Heir, then he may bring a Writ to demand the Heir, and not the Land. Altered by Stat. 12 Car. 2. cap. 24.

And for these two Charters to be firmly obserued in every Point and Article (where before no Remedy was at the Common Law) there shall be chosen in every Shire-Court, by the Commonalty of the same Shire, three substantial Men, Knights, or other lawful, wise, and well-disposed Persons, which shall be Justices sworn and assigned by the King's Letters Patents under the Great Seal, to hear and determine (without any other Writ, but only their Commission) such Plaints as shall be made upon all those that commit or offend against any Point contained in the foresaid Charters, in the Shires where they be assigned, as well within Franchises as without, and as well for the King's Officers out of their Places, as for other, and to hear the Plaints from Day to Day without any Delay, and to determine them, without allowing the Delays which be allowed by the Common Law. (4) And the same Knights shall have Power to punish all such as shall be attainted of any Trespass done contrary to any Point of the foresaid Charters (whereno Remedy was before by the Common Law) as before is said, by Imprisonment, or by Ransom, or by Amerciament, according to the Trespass. Tenant doth except against the

(4) And they shall let the Party absent to understand by their Writ under their Testimony, and also to the Jointenant that is present, of whom the Deed maketh mention, that he be present at a certain Day with the other Tenant to answer unto the Party Plaintiff, as well upon the Exception alledged, as of the Lands demanded and put in View, if it seem expedient for him; (5) at which Day if both that are named Tenants do come in, and do justify the same Feoffment, they shall answer and maintain the Exception alledged by one of them, and further shall answer unto the Assize as though the original Writ had been purchased against both of them jointly. (6) And if it be proved by Assize, that the Exception was alledged maliciously, to delay the Plaintiff of his Right, so that they held not the same Land jointly the Day of the Writ purchased, then albeit the same Assize do pass for the Tenants, and against the Plaintiff, yet they that alledge the Exception shall be punished by one Year's Imprisonment, whence they shall not be delivered without a grievous Fine. Profecto inter omnia sollicitudini nostre & cure inherentia circa illud precipue nostra non intermissive versatur intentio ut subditis nostris regni nostri incolis quietis & tranquillitatis dulcedinem preparemus in quorum quiete quiescimus & in eorum tranquillitate non sine suavitatis odore in floribus pacis desiderate interius confoveamur. Sane ex fideliis nostrorum relibus & oppressorum crebris clamoribus de quibus nimia inquietus commotione turbamur didicimus quod per ministros forestarum nostrarum populus ejusdem regni miserabiliter opprimitur depauperatur & diversis afficitur injuriis undique molestatus. Nonnunquam etenim sunt accusatores de Foresta & indictmentes vulgariter sic appellate non per legitimas inquisitiones proborum & legalium hominum patrie precedentes ut justitia requirit sed ad dictum unius vel forsan duorum de forestariis aut ad dictum unius vel forsan duorum de viridariis qui ex odio aut alias maliciose ut ab aliquo pecuniam extorqueant quenquam accusant vel indicant & exinde sequuntur attachiamenta gravia & puniuntur innocens quem nulla omnino culpa seu delictum constringit. Quid plura dampna & gravamina que circa hec proveriant ut acceptimus difficile foret per singula enarrare. Cupientes itaque oppressionibus & gravaminibus hujusmodi que absque gravi scandalo diutius sub dissimulatione preterire nequimus modis & viis omnibus quibus possumus obviare ac regni nostri incolarum paci & tranquillitati pervigili studio providere.

Because we do understand, that Controversies do oftentimes grow between Parsons of Churches and their Parishioners, touching Trees growing in the Church-yard, both of them pretending that they do belong unto themselves. (2) we have thought it good rather to decide this Controversy by Writing than by Statute. (3) Forasmuch as a Church-yard that is dedicated is the Soil of a Church, and whatsoever is planted belongeth to the Soil, it must needs follow, That those Trees which be growing in the Church-yard are to be reckoned amongst the Goods of the Church, the which Laymen have no Authority to dispose, but, as the Holy Scripture doth testify, The Charge of them is committed only to Priests to be disposed of.

In what Cases Trees may be felled in Church-yards.

II. And yet seeing those Trees be often planted to defend the Force of the Wind from bursting of the Church; we do prohibit the Parsons of the Church, That they do not presume to fell them down unadvisedly, but when the Chancel of the Church doth want necessary Reparations; (2) neither shall they be converted to any other Use, except the Body of the Church doth need like Repair: (3) In which Case the Parsons of their Charity shall do well to relieve the Parishioners with bestowing upon them the same Trees;

Quoniam inter rectores ecclesiarum et suos parochianos super arboribus crescentibus in cemiterio altercationes oriri sepius intelleximus, utrisque ad se pertinere contenditibus: Hujusmodi altercationis dubium declarare, juris facri potius quam statuti juris estimamus. Nam cum cemiterium maxime dedicatum solum sit ecclesie, et quicquid plantatur solo cedat; sequitur necessario, arbores ipsas debere inter facultates ecclesiasticas numerari, de quibus laicis nulla est attributa facultas disponendi, sed sicut sacra scriptura testatur solis sacerdotibus dispositio et cura indiscussa a Deo commissa decet.

Verum cum arbores ipse propter ventorum impetus, ne ecclesiis noceant, sepe plantantur; prohibemus ne ecclesiarum rectores ipsas presumant prosternere indistincte, nisi cum cancellus ecclesie necessaria indigent refectione. Nec in alios usus aliqualiter convertantur; preterquam si navis ecclesie indigerit similiter refectione, et rectores parochiarum indigenantium eis caritative de arboribus ipsis duxerint largiendum: quod fieri non precipimus, sed cum factum fuerit commendabimus.

Stat. I. and Anno Dom. 1315.

THE King to all to whom, &c. sendeth Greeting. Understand ye, That whereas of late Times of our Progenitors sometimes Kings of England, in divers their Parliaments, and likewise after that we had undertaken the Governance of the Realm, in our Parliaments many Articles containing divers Grievances (committed against the Church of England, the Prelates and Clergy) were propounded by the Prelates and Clerks of our Realm; and further, great Instance was made that convenient Remedy might be provided therein: (2) And of late in our Parliament holden at Lincoln, the ninth Year of our Reign, we caused the Articles underwritten, with certain Answers made to some of them heretofore, to be rehearsed before our Council, and made certain Answers to be corrected; and to the Residue of the Articles underwritten, Answers were made by Us and our Council; of which said Articles, with the Answers of the same, the Tenors here ensue.

REX omnibus ad quos &c. salutem. Sciat qd cum dudum temporibus progenitorum nostrorum quandam Regum Anglie in diversis parliamentis suis et similiter postquam regni nostri gubernacula suscepimus in parliamentis nostris per prelatos & clerum regni nostri plures articuli continebant gravamina aliqua ecclesie Anglicane & ipsis prelatis & clero illata ut in eisdem afferebatur porrecti fuissent & cum instantia supplicatum ut inde apponenteretur remedium opportunum ac nuper in parlemento nostro apud Lincoln anno regni nostri nono articulos subscriptos & quasdam responsiones ad aliquos eorum prius factas coram consilio nostro recitari ac quasdam responsiones corrigi & ceteris articulis subscriptis per nos & dictum consilium nostrum fecerimus responderi quorum quidem articulorum & responsionum tenores subsequuntur in hunc modum.

No Prohibition shall be granted where Tithes are demanded, but where Money for them.

Set si clericus vel religiosus decimas suas in orreō suo congregatas vel alibi existentes vendiderit alicui pro pecunia si petatur pecunia coram Judice ecclesiastico locum habet prohibitio quia per venditionem res spirituales fiunt temporales & transeunt decime in catalla.

FIRST, whereas Lay-men do purchase Prohibitions generally upon Tythes, Obventions, Oblations, Mortuaries, Redemption of Penance, violent laying Hands on Clerks or Converts, and in Cases of Defamation, in which Cases Spiritual Penance ought to be enjoined; (2) the King doth answer to this Article, That in Tythes, Oblations, Obventions, Mortuaries (when they are propounded under these Names) the King's Prohibition shall hold no Place, although for the long withholding of the same the Money may be esteemed at a Sum certain. (3) But if a Clerk or a religious Man do sell his Tythes being gathered in his Barn, or otherwise, to any Man for Money, if the Money be demanded before a Spiritual Judge, the King's Prohibition shall lie; for by the Sale the spiritual Goods are made temporal, and the Tythes turned into Chattels.

Statutum De Terris Templariorum, made Anno 17

EDW. II. Stat. 3. and Anno Dom. 1324.

FOR that the military Order of Templers ceasing and being dissolved, the Lands and Tenements, in Demeasnes, Fees, and services of the Brethren of the same Order which they held in their Fraternity in the Realm of England in the Time of the same ceasing and Dissolution of the foresaid Order, which were holden of our Lord the King, and divers other Lords in this Kingdom, were seised into the Hands of our Soveraigne Lord the King, and of divers other Lords of the Fees of them, who challenged the same Lands for the Consideration aforesaid, that the same Lands ought to revert to them as their Escheats. Whereupon after in a Parliament of the most noble Prince King EDWARD Son of King EDWARD, summoned and assembled at Westmister, three Weeks after the Day of the Purification of the blessed Virgin Mary, in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of the same King, great Conference was had before the King himself, in the Presence of the Prelates, Earls, Barons, Nobles, and great Men of the Realm, and others there present, whether the foresaid Lords of the Fees or others which held those Lands that were the foresaid Templers, as is aforesaid, might retain them by the Law of the Realm, and with safe Conscience. Wherupon the greater Part of the King's Council, as well the Justices as other lay Persons being assembled together: The said Justices affirmed precisely, that our Lord the King, and other Lords of the Fees aforesaid, might well and lawfully by the Laws of the Realm retain the foresaid Lands as their Escheats, in regard of the ceasing and Dissolution of the Order aforesaid.

But because the Lands and Tenements aforesaid were given to the Brethren of the said Order for the Defence of Christians, and the Holy Land against Pagans and Saracens, and other Enemies of Christ and Christians, and the universal holy Church: It seemed good to our Lord the King, the Noblemen, and others assembled in the same Parliament, for the Jealath of their Souls and discharge of their Consciences, That whereas the said Military Order of Templars were originally instituted for the Defence of Christians and the universal holy Church, subversion of the Enemies of Christ and Christians, and canonised to the Augmentation of the Honour of God, and liberal Almsgiving, that the foresaid Lands and Tenements in Demeasnes, Lordships, Services, Liberties, Customs, and all other Things pertaining thereunto, and by any Thing depending hereupon, according to the Wills of the Givers, shall be af-signed and delivered to other Men of most holy Religion, to the Intent the Fruits, Obventions, and Profits of the same Lands, Tenements, and other Things may be converted and charitably disposed to godly Uses. And thereupon in the same Parliament it is agreed, ordained and established for Law to continue for ever, That neither our Lord the King, nor any other Lords of the Fees aforesaid, or any other Person, hath Title or Right to retain the foresaid Lands and Tenements with the Appurtenances or any Part thereof, in regard of Elcheat, or by any other Means, or hereafter to challenge the same Lands in respect of the ceasing or Dissolution of the foresaid Military Order of Templars, whereof the Brethren of the same Order were seised in their Demesnes as of Fee at the Time of the ceasing and Dissolution aforesaid: Notwithstanding that the foresaid Lands and Tenements after the said ceasing and Dissolution came to the Hands of divers Persons by Descent of Inheritance, Gift, or Purchase, or by any other Means: And notwithstanding any Law or Custom of the Realm of England, whereby this Law, Ordinance and Statute, touching the Assignment and Conveyance of the foresaid Lands and Tenements might be hindered, impugned, or counterpleaded.

Seeing the Order of the Brethren of the Hospital of Saint John of Hierusalem was likewise ordained, instituted, and canonised for the Defence of Christians and the holy Church: It is agreed and enacted in the said Parliament by our foresaid L. the King, the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other great Men of the Realm there being, That insomuch as the foresaid Order of the Templars is ceased and dissolved, and the foresaid Order of the Hospital is provided, instituted, and canonised, for the Defence of Christians, as is aforesaid, that all the Lands, Tenements, Lordships, Fees, Churches, Advowsons of Churches, and Liberties with all Things to them belonging, which were the said Templars at the Time of their ceasing and Dissolution, shall be assigned and delivered to the foresaid Order of the Hospital, and to the Prior and Brethren of the same Hospital, to remain to them and their Successors for ever. Wherefore our said L. the King, by the mutual Assent of the Earls, Barons, and Noblemen aforesaid, of his Regall Authority in the same Parliament, hath assigned to determine and deliver all the foresaid Lands, Tenements, Lordships, Fees, Churches, Advowsons, and Liberties with their Appurtenances to the foresaid Order of the Hospital, and to the said Prior and Brethren of the said Order, to have and hold to the same Prior and his Brethren and Successors for ever of our L. the King, and other Lords of the Fees aforesaid, by the same Services, by which the Brethren of the Military Order of Templars held the same, at the Time of their ceasing and Dissolution: as in relieving of the Poor, in Hospitalities, in celebrating Divine Service, Defence of the Holy Land, and in all other Offices and Services before Time due, by whatsoever Names they be called. So always, that the godly and worthy will of the foresaid Givers be observed, erformed, and alwaies religiously executed, as is aforesaid, having to every Person his Action, if he had any, the Time of the ceasing and Dissolution aforesaid against the same Templars & the foresaid Lands and Tenements, Rents, Services, Customs, Pensions, Corodies, Liberties, celebrating of Masses, Almes, and other Things whatsoever, and Liberty to prosecute his Right against the said Prior and Brethren of the Hospital aforesaid and their Brethren and their Successors, according to the Law and Custom of the Realm, as he might have had against the foresaid Templars, if the Order aforesaid had not been dissolved: And if it fortune that the said Prior and Brethren of the Hospital aforesaid, or their Successors shall be put out of the foresaid Lands and Tenements, or of any Parcell thereof, after they shall be seised of the same, they shall have Power to recover their own according to the Law of the Realm.

All the Templars Lands given to the Prior of the Hospital of St. John of Hierusalem.

And to the Intent that the Assignment before specified may be published and made known to all Men to whom it behoveth: It is ordained and agreed in the same Parliament, that it shall be openly proclaimed in every County of this Kingdome, that all and every Person holding the Lands and Tenements aforesaid, and all others to whom it doth appertaine, shall be at Westminster one Month after Easter Day next if they will, to bear the Concord, Provision, and Assignment aforesaid, in Form aforesaid.

Consuetudines et Assisa de Foresta sive Articuli de Attachiamentis Foreste. †

nerit aliquem attachiabilem pro viridi in foresta; primo debet ipsum attachiare per duos plegios, si inventus fuerit in loco suspecto; sin autem, debet ducere ipsum ad proximam Villam, et ibi ponere ipsum per vadum et plegium; Et si idem alias inveniatur cum viridi, debet ipsum attachiare per quatuor plegios: Et si tertio inveniatur cum viridi; coram viridario debet presentari, et poni per octo plegios: Et postea post tertium attachiamen- tum, corpus suum debet attachiari et retineri.

Ut memorialiter habeatur quid sit viride; sciend' est, quod omnes arbores fructum portantes, et etiam he que tenent viriditatem per totum annum, et fraxinus si antiquitus usum fuerit intra forestatam, et arabilis qua dominus Rex est in seilina, † Secunda Pars veterum Statutorum. 29. 30. 31.

Si quis forestarius invenerit extra dominicum boscum et intra rewardum aliquem prosterrentem quercum, sine visu aut liberatione forestarii aut viridarii; debet ipsum attachare per quatuor plegios; et per visum viridarii debet quercus illa apprepari, et in rotulo forestariorum et viridariorum et regardatorum imbrevari, et debet ponи per sex plegios salvos; et si alias inveniatur debent duplicari ejus plegii; Et si tertio, corpus ejus debet retineri. Et si aliquis attachabilis fuerit contra vadium et plegium, debet distingi per catalla sua infra metas foreste ubi erunt inventa; si autem defecerint, licitum est corpus suum retinere, quounque fecerit id quod facere debuerit. Si autem infra metas foreste non fuerit; Nomen ejus debet irrotulari, et villa de qua fuerit &c.

Liberatio houſbote & haybōte debet fieri, prout boscus o testati in statu quo est, & non secundum exigentiam ejus cui sit liberatio. Non potest aliquis dare nec vendere de bosco domini Regis sine Warranto ejusdem Regis.

Si aliqua fera inveniatur mortua vel vulnerata, et non fuerit bercatorum; Ad prima placita debet fieri inquisitio per quatuor villas propinquiores, que debet irrotulari; et inventor debet ponи per sex plegios; caro autem debet mitti ad proximam domum leprosorum, si que prope fuerit in partibus illis, et hoc per testimonium viridariorum et patrie. Si autem nulla talis domus fuerit prope, caro debet dari infirmis et pauperibus; caput et cutis debent dari liberis hominibus proxime ville; et sagitta, si que inventa fuerit, debet presentari viridariis, et in veredicto suo irrotulabitur.

Si Leporarius inventus fuerit currens ad aliquod nocturnum foreste; capitalis forestarius debet eum retinere in presentia viridariorum, et mittere eum domino Regi vel capitali Justiciariorum foreste.

Si quis mastivus inventus fuerit currens super aliquam feram, & dictus mastivus mutulatus fuerit; ille cuius mastivus ille fuerit erit de facto illo quietus: Set si non fuerit mutulatus, ille cuius erit Mastivus erit culpabilis tanquam de manupasto suo, et debet ponи per sex plegios, quorum nomina debent imbrevari, et etiam qualis fuerit canis.

Si quis ceperit aliquam feram in foresta sine Warranto; corpus suum retinendum est, ubicumque inveniatur infra metas foreste; et quum captus fuerit, non liceat Forestarii ipsum delibерare sine speciali precepto domini Regis vel Justiciariorum suorum.

Si quis videat aliquos malefactores infra metas foreste aliquam feram capere vel asportare; debet illos capere secundum posse suum: Et si non potest, debet levare hu & cry; et si non fecerit, remaneat in misericordia domini Regis.

Si quis Wodwardus videt allquos malefactores in bosco, qui fuerit in custodia sua, vel feram bestiam invenerit mortuam; debet monstrare capitali forestario vel viridario si autem non fecerit, et forestarius domini Regis tale delictum in dicto bosco, qui fuerit infra rewardum, invenerit; ille boscus capiendus est in manum num domini Regis per preceptum Justiciariorum, et Wodewardus attachiandus est per quatuor plegios.

Si aliquis habuerit boscum juxta dominicum boscum nostrum; licitum est ei, postquam dominice haie agistate sunt, habere in bosco suo tempore pannagii tot porcos quot dominicus boscus per vilum forestariorum viridariorum agistatorum et aliorum proborum hominum possit pati: Et si plures ibi fuerint; licitum est eis, capere panagium de omnibus residuis, qui plures fuerint, quam dictus boscus posset pati. Et fiat hoc in exitu pororum, &c.

Sciendum quod tempore pannagii, cum agistamentum debet fieri, debent forestarii et viridarii regardatores et agistatores per communem assensum intimare Justiciariis de foresta Domini Regis, et inquirere voluntatem suam, ut fiat agistamentum, tam in dominicis haies, quam in forinsecis boscis; et secundum mandatum suum et tenorem literarum debet fieri agistamentum, quas literas debent habere coram Justiciariis forestae proxime post itinerantibus. Et preceptum est, ut deinceps capiatur de quolibet porco quantum potest pro pannagio ad opus Domini Regis, scilicet unus vel duo denarii. De porcellis autem fiat sicut prius solum est.

Si quis in alio comitatu miserit averia sua intrametas foreste; forestarius pro posse suo dicta averia debet retinere; et ea ponere per vadious et salvos plegios; quod si non possit, per testimonium viridariorum debet vicecomiti illius comitatus intimare, ut ipse distinctionem faciat, quoisque plegios invenerit; quod si vicecomes non fecerit, forestarius Justiciariis foreste debet hoc intimare:

Nullus messor debet adducere secum mastivum magnum de nocte, ad fugandum Regis feras; sed licitum est adducere parvos catulos expeditatos, ad expetendum extra copertum.

De his qui clamant habere libertates, sicut canes inexpeditatos, et leporarios, intra metas foreste; nihil eis inde faciendum est sine warranto Domini Regis vel Justiciariorum suorum.

Si quis boscus remaneat in manu Domini Regis per unum annum et diem; in voluntate Domini Regis est, nisi possit recuperari per judicium Justiciariorum.

Omnis mete foreste integre sunt Domino Regi.

Sciendum quod bene licitum est Abbati de Burgo Sancti Petri, venari, et capere leporem et vulpem et murelegum infra metas foreste, et habere canes non expeditatos; quia sufficiens habet inde warrantum.

Sciendum quod Dominus Petrus de Monteforti nullum habet warrantum, quin possit fieri attachiamentum in bosco suo.

Sciendum quod Justiciarii precipit, quod si quis hominum Episcopi Lincoln' intret in boscum suum forinsecum extra parcum, corpus suum retinendum est; et ille boscus remaneat in manu Domini Regis pro defectu forestar'.

Quando viridarii ceperint inquisitionem, unus apponat sigillum, et aliis rotulum teneat; et sic de foresta in forestam usque adventum Justiciariorum: tunc primo die ipse et omnes ministri presentabunt rotulum, aut amercentur. Et manucapti pro foresta eo die proferantur, aut manucaptio incurritur.

Homo attachiatus pro ratis cesis, placitum illud pertinet ad Swainmotum

Ex Vet. Stat.
secund par. 31.

Swainmotum coram senescale ; et attachiatus pro querca prostrata in dominica Regis vel alterius, pertinet coram Justiciariis. Et si noctanter alicubi fecerit, jacet imprisonmentum.

Attachiatus ad Swainmotum pro viridi non presentato ad proximum, ad aliud presentatio non prejudicet ; sed capiatur ad forestarium pro concelamento, et eat attachiatus quietus per assam.

Si forestarius in dominico bosco Regis consentiat delicto ; cipiat Rex suo superiori, et sibi si sufficiens sit.

Boscos vastatus ad quodlibet iter Justiciariorum dabit Dominum Regi dimidiam marcam.

Anno primo EDWARDI III.

statutes made at Westminster, the Seventh of March, in the First Year of the Reign of the Noble King EDWARD the Third, Stat. 1. in the Year of our Lord 1327.

Confirmation of the Banishment of Hugh Spenser the Father, and Hugh Spenser the Son.

WHEREAS Hugh Spenser the Father, and Hugh Spenser Exile, the Son, late at the Suit of Thomas then Earl of Lancaster and Leicester, and Steward of England, by the Common assent and ward of the Peers and Commons of the Realm, and by the assent of King Edward father to our Soueraign Lord the King that now is, Traitors and enemies of the King and of his Realm, were exiled, Disbarited, and banished out of the Realm for ever, And afterward, the same Hugh and Hugh by euil counsel which the King had taken of them without the assent of the Peers and Commons of the Realm, came again into the Realm. And they with other procured the said King to pursue the said Earl of Lancaster, and other great men and people of this Realm, in which pursuit, the said Earl of Lancaster, and other great men and people of the Realm were willingly dead and Disbarited, and some Outlawed, Banished, and Disbarited, and some Disbarited and imprisoned, and some ransomed and Disbarited. And after such mischief, the said Hugh and Hugh, Master Robert Ballock, and Edmond late Earl of Arundel usurped to them the Royal power, so that the King nothing did nor would do, but as the said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond Earl of Arundel did counsel him, were it neuer so great wrong, during which usurpation, by Druess and force against the will of the commons, they purchased lands as well by Fines levied in the Court of the said King Edward, as otherwise. And whereas after the death of the said Earl of Lancaster, and of other great men, our Soueraign Lord the King that now is, and Dame Isabel, Queen of England, his mother, by the Kings will and Common Counsel of the Realm, went ouer into France, to treat a peace between the two Realms of England and France, vpon certain debates then moued: The said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond Earl of Arundel continuing their mischief, encouraged the said King Edward against our Soueraign Lord the King that now is, his son, and the said Queen his wife, and by the Royal power which they had to them incroached, as afore is said, procured so much grieuance by the assent of the said King Edward, to our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, and the Queen his mother, then being beyond the sea; that they remained as forsaken of the said King Edward, and as exiled from this

Realm of England. Wherefore it was necessary for our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, and the Queen his mother, being in so great jeopardie of themselves in a strange Countrey, and seeing the destruction, damage, oppreßions, and Disberifons which were notoriously done in the Realm of England, upon holy Church, Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other great men and the Commonalty, by the said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond Earl of Arundel by the encroaching of such royal power to them, to take as good counſel therein as they might. And ſeeing they might not remedie the ſame, unleſſ they came into England with an army of men of war, And by the grace of God with ſuch puissance and with the help of great men and Commons of the Realm, they have vanquished and destroyed the ſaid Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond. Wherefore our Sovereign Lord King Edward that now is, at his Parliament holden at Westminſter, at the time of his Coronation on the morrow after Candlemas, in the first year of his Reign, upon certain petitions and requests made to him in the ſaid Parliament, upon ſuch articles above rehearſed, by the common counſel of the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other great men, and by the Commonalty of the Realm there being by his commandment, bat provided ordained and eſtablished in the form following.

C A P. I.

Purſuit.

FIRST, That no great Man nor other, of what Estate, Dignity, or Condition he be, that came with the ſaid King that now is, and with the Queen his Mother, into the Realm of England, nor none other, then dwelling in England that came with the ſaid King that now is, and the Queen, in Aid of them to purſue their ſaid Enemies, in which Purſuit the King his Father was taken and put in Ward, and yet remaineth in Ward: ſhall not be impeached, moleſted, nor grieved in Person nor in Goods, in the King's Court, nor other Court for the Purſuit of the ſaid King, taking and with-holding of his Body, nor Purſuit of any other, nor taking of their Persons, Goods, nor Death of any Man, or any other Things perpetrate or committed in the ſaid Purſuit, from the Day that the ſaid King and Queen did arrive, till the Day of the Coronation of the ſame King. And it is not the King's Mind, that ſuch Offenders that committed any Trespass, or other Offence out of the ſaid Purſuit ſhould go quit or have Advantage of this Statute, but they ſhall be at their Answer for the ſame at the Law.

C A P. II.

The Repeal of the Exile made void.

Exiles

ITEM, That the Repeal of the ſaid Exile, which was made by Dureſs and Force be annulled for evermore. And the ſame Exile made by Award of the Peers and the Commons by the King's Affent as afore is ſaid, ſhall stand in his Strength in all Points, after the Tenour of every Article therein contained.

C A P.

C A P. III.

The Executors of those that were wrongfully slain shall have Action to recover their Testators Goods. (2) All Assurances made to the Rebels by Dureſſ shall be void.

ITEM, That the Executors of the Testament of all those that were of the same Quarrel dead, shall have Actions and recover the Goods and Chattels of them being of the said Quarrel whose Executors they be, as they of the same Quarrel should. And that Fines, Sales, and Gifts of Land, and Recognisances of Debts after the Time of the Exile of the said Hugh and Hugh, made by Force and Dureſſ to the said Hugh and Hugh, Edmond Earl of Arundel, Robert Baldecke, and Walter Stableton, late Bishop of Exeter, or to any of them be defeated. It is also agreed and established, That if any Man will by way of Action, defeat any Fine, Sale or Gift of Land, and Recognisances of Debts, made by Force or Dureſſ to the said Persons as above is said: Force and he shall have a Writ out of the Chancery to cause the Transcript of the Force and of the Fine, and the Tenour of the Recognisances to be had before the King and his Justices, assigned to hold Pleas before the King, with two Bishops, two Earls, and two Barons associate unto them, or else of every Estate one, to warn the Tenant of the Land, whereof such Fine is levied or Gift or Sale made. And if it be found in the King's Court by Confession of the Party, or by a lawful Enquest to be taken, that such Fine, Sale, or Gift, was levied or made by Dureſſ of Imprisonment, or else for Fear of Death: it shall then be defeated. And Execution to be made for the Plaintiff as pertaineth by Restitution of Lands and Tenements, being in other Mens Hands than the King's. And like Process shall be made of Lands being in the King's Hands, whereof Fines be levied to warn the Keepers of the said Lands. And in case where any will demand Land by the Common Law, and such Fine or Deed be pleaded in Barr of his Demand, then it shall be done as hath been used in Times past where a Release or quit Claim hath been pleaded in Barr of such Actions between the Parties, or Imprisonment hath been alledged. But it is not the Mind of the King nor of his Counsel, that they which have sold their Lands, and released or quit claimed of their own free Will, should have any Benefit by this Statute.

Escheators shall make no Waste in the Lands of the King's Wards. A Ward shall have an Action of Waste against his Guardian.

ITEM, whereas in the Great Charter it is contained, that after the Death of the Ancestors, which hold of the King in chief, and whose Heirs be within Age, that the King shall keep the Lands without Waste and Destruction, and restore them wholly to the Heirs when they come to their full Age. And against God and Right, and the said Establishments, the Escheators, and other to whom the Lands of such Heirs have been committed, have done Waste and Destruction, to the great Mischief, as well of the Heirs of Earls, Barons, and other great Men, as of other which hold of the King in chief, and nevertheless the said Escheators have had no Conscience to do such Destructions, and scarcely have answered the King: Wherefore it is assented and established, That from henceforth after the Death of every Person which holdeth of the King in chief, that the Escheators shall cause to be seized into the King's Hands the Lands as do appertain, without doing Waste in Houses, Woods, Parks, Ponds, or other Extortions, which may fall to the Damage of the Heir. And hastily after the Diem clausit extremum delivered to him, to make Return of the same by a good and true Extent in the Chancery: After which Return if it be found that the Heir is within Age, and if the next Friends of the same Heir to whom the Inheritance cannot descend, shall come and offer them to take the said Lands, yielding the Value to the King, till the Age of the Heir, so far forth as other will yield without Fraud, by accord betwixt the Chancellor and the Treasurer, they shall have Commission to keep the said Lands by good and sufficient Surety till the Age of the said Heirs, and to answer the King of the Value. And it is not the King's Intent, that by this Statute he be foreclosed to have an Action of Waste against such Guardians and Fermors, as he and his Ancestors have had before this Time. And of such Voidances taken in the Time of our Ancestors, no Collation nor Presentment shall be from henceforth made by us nor by our Heirs, but to take any such Action of such Voidances we will be wholly and quietly foreclosed.
